"All the World's a Stage and All the Men and Women Merely Players."

— William Shakespeare

I am the stage on which you've played —
Gardena's Production '81

The first day of school, Homecoming Dance, the night of the Prom, dread of exams —
Meetings with Key Club, football training, learning to drive, and A-3 jailing;
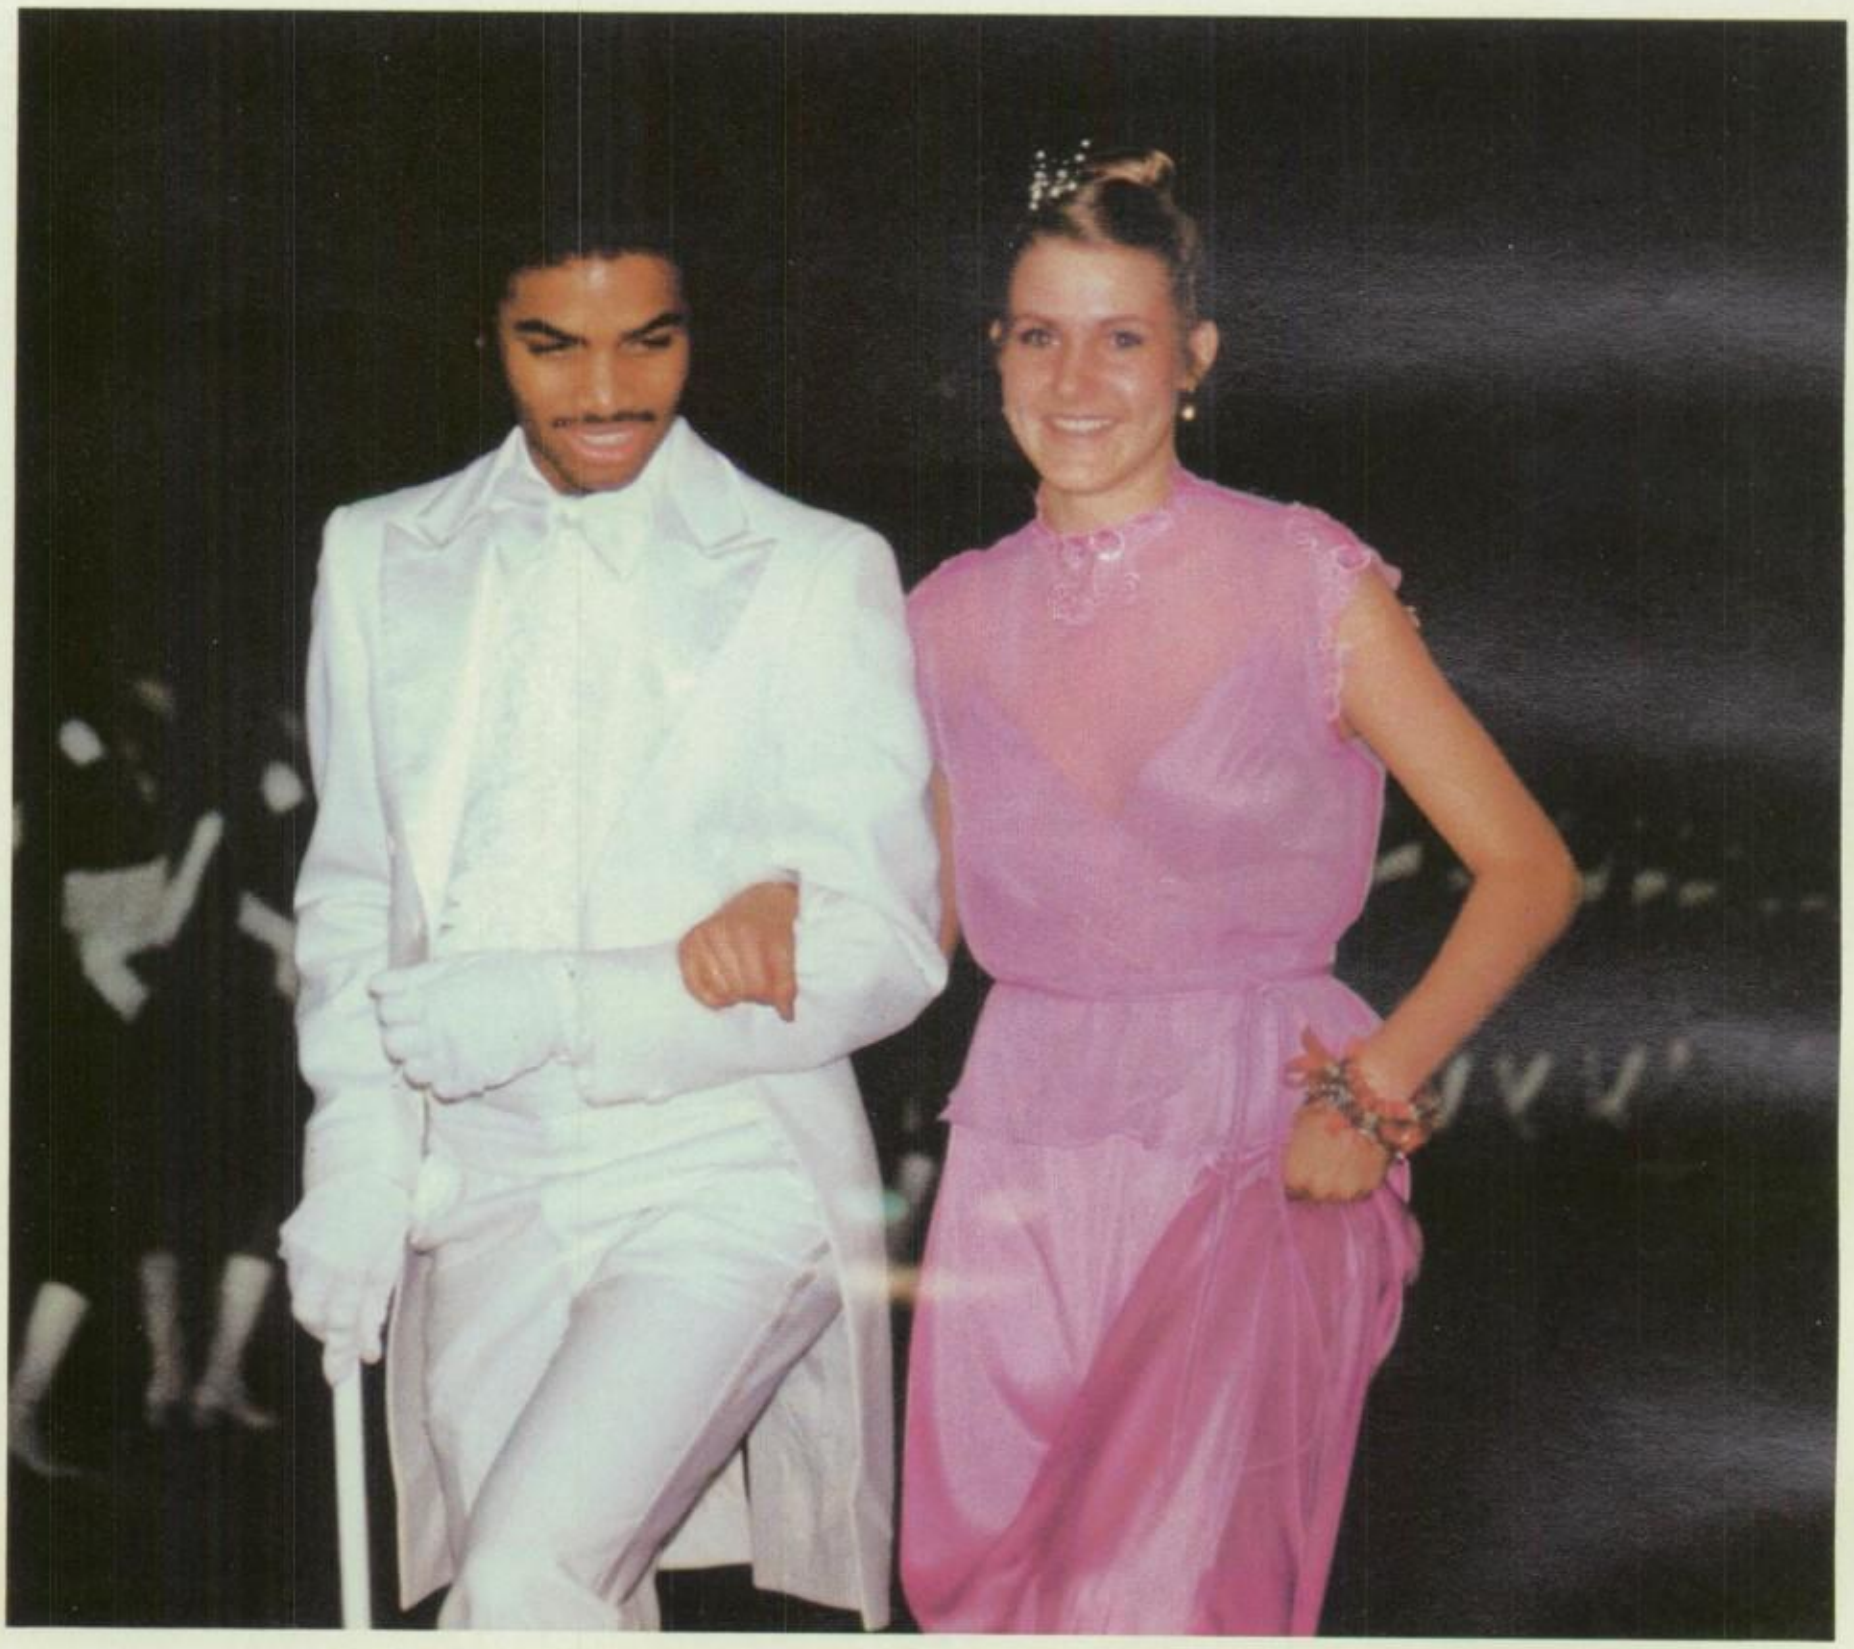
All you've done is part of Production '81.



Some played it carefree, some played it cool —
Each played his own, there were never two.
A cluster of races, molds, and faces, formed in September ready to share —
The great task of building school's 75th year.

We had no script from which to act,
Created our own — unique at that.
A story of teens trying to grow,
Trying to learn, and trying to be
The best one they can. Their goal is maturity.

Yes, you've played your role and played it well —
The amount you achieved, time will tell.
Mohican spirit, Mohican drive,
Mohican love, Mohican PRIDE
Has shaped me into the creation that I am:

I am the stage on which you've played —
Gardena's Production '81

CELEBRITY LIFE

. . . Introduction

HOT OFFER — GET IT NOW!

What's this? Something free, in 1981? No way! That's ridiculous . . . unbelievably mind boggling . . . really?

Yes — really! Believe it or not, one of the promises of the familiar cliche, "some of the best things in life are free", is true. It's a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to gain a valuable education at Gardena High.

Attending classes isn't the only kind of stardom experience. There's more to celebrity life than books, tardy bells, and A3: like firing yourself up at our noon pep rallies, participating in

"Oh no! It can't be!" exclaimed Nadine Tokita, "Not today. Mom's gonna kill me!"

"Wait! Wait! Mr. Bus Driver . . . please!" begged the desperate Gerald Ransfer.

Know-A-Club Week, or dancin' and romancin' under the stars at Silver Bells.

Then there's always the other side of the coin – moments you'd like to erase from your memory. First, on one of your not-so-terrific days, you missed your bus because you turned your clock for daylight savings time. . . the wrong way! To top that off, you spent half of the lunch period in line for a pizza to find that only hamburgers are sold in that line!

There are worse things that make these incidents look like jokes. Remember that day you came to school 'a-shoop-a-doo, bop-boppin' onto campus, only to find it being invaded by punk rockers, screaming revenge on disco? . . . and that cold morning when you groaned your way out of bed, then remembered, ahh – it's Saturday – and only 9:00!? Hmmm, the clock says . . . no – no, wait a minute! It can't be! Not the day for the S.A.T. test that starts at . . . at . . . 8:00! Yikes!

No matter how rough the going gets, the good times will always be the best remembered. Wasn't it exciting winning first place for your Halloween costume in the judging contest? Or, simply relaxing with your best friend at nutrition, sharing a special secret?

There are tons of other fun-freebies out there; you just have to find them. The kind of memories that you retain after high school all depends on how much you were willing to put into your high school years.

So when you're old and gray, and have to spend $10 at McDonalds for lunch – say to yourself, "I remember when I was young . . . I got the very best things, for free!!"

After a long, hard day at school, Kim Nishita and Glenn Ontiveros agreed that they "deserved a break today"!

. . . Fall Leadership

THE "SPIRIT STALKER"

All Students of Gardena High: It's come . . . It's here . . . Stalking the campus of Gardena High, day and night, and it'll pounce on you when you least expect it . . . So BEWARE!!!

What's this mysterious thing raising havoc all over campus? Could it be the Gargantuan Graders — the Fantastic Finals —or the Tasmanian Tests?? No . . . it's the Spirit Stalker, and he's come at last! But where did he come from? No, not Krypton — but H6, where the leaders of the school brainstormed for one hundred-forty days planning activities to lure the Spirit Stalker to Gardena

High.

They call themselves Leadership. Look around you and you'll see them — before school, during school, and after school; running around in green and white jackets with little yellow badges attached to them.

Raising the school spirit was one of the main reasons for their existence. They achieved this goal by planning activities such as Spirit Week, Halloween Week, Girls' Week, Teachers' Appreciation Week, and noontime activities. For many this meant coming to school early, sacrificing nutrition, lunch, and staying long hours after school.

In planning activities their first objective was getting ideas, not only from among themselves, but from leaders of other schools as well. Once an idea was developed, they concentrated on getting the date approved by the administration, figuring out the financial costs, and asking themselves realistically, "Will the Student Body participate in this activity?" If the answer to this question was "yes", they moved ahead. Since publicity played an exceptionally big part in the success of an activity, banners and posters were made to help advertise the activity. Then at last, the numerous minor details — such as decorations, supervision, and ticket distribution — were ironed out. It was these minor details that, if not worked out, severely handicapped an activity.

The fall leadership worked hand in hand to stimulate school spirit, like Batman and Robin worked to demolish city crime. Now who would have thought the Mohican Spirit would depend on such a group??

. . . Halloween Week

TIME WARP

Was GHS caught in a time warp? What was happening?

It was October 27, 1980, but it might have been twenty-five years earlier. Ponytails, bobby socks, saddle shoes, leather jackets, and greased hair swarmed everywhere. Sandra Dee fluttered her eyelashes flirtatiously as she put on her lipstick, and the Fonz stood on the quad, surrounded by several admiring girls.

Then, just two days later, punk rockers wearing outrageously colored hair, New Wave sunglasses, and plastic garbage bags invaded the campus. The energy that filled the halls reached new wavelengths as the punks "pogo'd" and "whipped it" to the electrifying sounds of Devo and the B-52's.

During the Door Decoration Contest, the ghouls in Room Z1 welcomed guests into their spook house; the Ghost of Paddor's Castle warned trespassers that they would be eaten.

What was going on? Had Cook, the mad scientist, sent us to the past and back again?

No! It was simply two days in Gardena High's first Halloween Spirit Week. Designed to raise school spirit and pride, it certainly seemed to be working as people of all grades and races got into the swing of things and had a great time together. The events for the week were:

Mon. "Oldies but Goodies" Day (1950's style dress)
Tues. Homeroom Door-Decorating Contest
Wed. Punk Rock Day
Thur. Kiddie Day
Fri. Halloween

Some people went ALL out: Becky Strong, reliving her childhood on Kiddie Day, wore pajamas and carried a six-foot-tall stuffed Paddington Bear. Looking at her made you want to say, "Brush your teeth and go back to bed!"

Then on Halloween, Joan Ward stalked the school in a black cape, fangs, and Cleopatra eyes. Was she an evil vampiress? . . . or merely a friendly witch in need of some dental work? Maybe some of both, or maybe neither. But whatever she was supposed to be, she and everyone else who dressed up — whether from head to toe, or just head OR toe — had a GREAT time!

. . . Ghosts and ghouls weren't the only spirits raised this past Halloween!!!

With thumbs up, and a snap of the fingers, "The Fonz" (Miles Franks) called for his chick (Wendy Yonamine) and told her to "Sit on It!"

Was Crest (Stephanie Taylor) joining Aim (Wendy Ross) to fight cavities? Or were these just two spirited students participating in the Halloween Dress Day?

. . . Girls' Week

CELEBRATION OF PROGRESS

Many books have been written about Los Angeles, its history, and its people. But few of them make any mention of the women who helped the city grow from a tiny pueblo to one of the biggest, most famous cities in America.

Perhaps one book briefly mentions evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson or cultural leader Dorothy Chandler. Another features old snapshots of smiling bathing beauties or Rose Parade queens. Yet across the page from the pretty girls is a famous industrialist, politician, philanthropist — someone who is far more important, the book implies, someone who is a man.

But although woman's role in Los Angeles history has been largely ignored, women have been a vital force in shaping the city. The women who settled in California with their families took a chance on the unknown. They held the family together, and made the unfamiliar place a home.

And in spite of the restrictions placed on women by society, there have always been brave women who were determined to live as they chose, not confining themselves to the passive role of a model female.

One of these was Caroline Severance, who led numerous women's rights, anti-slavery, and liberal organizations in the East before founding the Women's Club of Los Angeles in 1878. The Club, dedicated to social and cultural betterment, became a powerful force in Los Angeles.

Another woman who contributed to Los Angeles' development was Katherine Edson. A social reformer and feminist, Edson was active in state government.

These women are just two of many who changed Los Angeles. But because they were women, they were not encouraged to work for their dreams, and their accomplishments were rarely taken seriously.

Now, however, that is beginning to change. As Los Angeles has grown from its humble beginnings, so the women of Los Angeles have grown in the freedom of their lives. Women are entering traditionally male fields. No longer are their accomplishments ignored; they are making history in every newspaper and magazine.

This is what Los Angeles women have to celebrate: the progress we have made, and the progress yet to come. In the words of Caroline Severance, "We rejoice in what woman has already wrought . . . and we feel assured that greater things than these she shall do in the fairer future before her."

. . . Silver Bells

A QUEEN'S-EYE VIEW

"In the air there's a feeling of Christmas, Children laughing, people passing, Meeting smile after smile, And on every street corner you hear Silver Bells . . ."

That song sure makes me feel Christmas-y, even though I'm feeling blah with this cold. It reminds me of Silver Bells . . . Oh, my gosh! Today's the last day to buy tickets! . . .

Santa Claus, alias Gary Sanders, congratulated 1980 Silver Bells Princesses, Cassandra Criner and Sheri Munekata.

Linda Nakamura and her charming escort, Glenn Sakamoto, enjoyed a lively, fun-filled evening.

I'm so nervous! I positively have to ask him tonight! And I still have to get a dress . . .

He said yes! What a relief. I finally found a dress too. I hope it looks okay with his suit. I wonder what color boutonniere I should get him. I hope he gets me red roses . . .

These are typical thoughts that may go through the minds of many girls a few weeks before the Christmas dance. As a candidate for the 1980 Silver Bells Court, Terri Ashimine felt, in addition to the usual excitement and anticipation, a special nervousness and thrill.

"When I first heard that I was a candidate for queen, I thought it was a mistake. I couldn't believe it. I didn't want to get my hopes up, so I tried not to think about it.

Even when we were at the dance, I wasn't nervous. It still didn't seem like it was really happening. Then it hit me; all of a sudden I got really nervous! When the two princesses, Sheri and Cassandra, were announced I was so happy for them. I don't remember hearing my name, but then someone screamed. I was totally in shock. People were hugging me and laughing and telling me to go up on stage, but I couldn't move!

I was in a daze, but I was so happy. It was like a dream, just too good to be true. The best part of it, though, was feeling the love and support of my friends. Just having them there, sharing in my happiness, made the whole evening one I'll always cherish."

As member of the Knights and Las Laureas who hosted the Silver Bells Winter Magic, Nancy Robinson decorated the Community Center with X-mas ornaments.

"And the 1980 Silver Bells Queen is . . . Terri Ashimine!"

. . . Noontime Activities

FALL-IN, OR FALL-OUT?

No matter how intellectual, how ingenious, every student needs a chance to put down his test notes and simply enjoy the excitement of being a high school student. To help out, the Leadership class and Administration invited the Student Body to numerous Noontime Activities during nutrition and lunch. This not only provided a wide variety of activities for the students, but more importantly boosted school spirit and morale.

PEP RALLIES: "Ringggg!" 12:22 lunchtime! Every Friday around this time students all over campus crowded in the amphitheatre. Cheerleaders

"Our team may be small, but that's okay, 'cause we're gonna whip you anyway!" was the decree given by Andre Bowen, Jesse Hatter, and Craig Higa.

While setting up for the Holiday Foods Fair, Linda Nakamura kept a watchful eye on the Senior Booth.

shouted and students joined in to psyche up the Mighty Mohican football team for the big game that night.

BACK TO BACK: The emcee announced, "Everyone with same color top, hook up!" In the next thirty seconds students of all races, grades, and sexes hooked elbows, back to back. Those unhooked when the whistle blew were eliminated from the game.

SIMON SAYS: For those students whose favorite party game was "Simon Says", or those unfortunate children who'd never played the game, Nelson Shirota transformed into Simon and gave the participants the party of their life. They laughed, screamed, and danced, but only when . . . Simon said!

ICE-CREAM EATING CONTEST: Baskin Robbins must've had their highest sale of ice-cream the day Gardena high held its Ice-Cream Eating Contest! Pride, embarrassment, and hands were put behind the backs of the contestants as they devoured the huge mounds of ice-cream. The winners of this messy contest were John Hernandez and Dewayne Coleman. Oink, Oink!!

HOLIDAY FOODS FAIR: Filling the quad with a delicious savor, food and game booths were operated by campus clubs during lunch. Students enjoyed experiencing the different foods from all over the country, but they had to beware: the Knights and Las Laureas were on the patrol to find any "Wanted Convicts."

TUG OF WAR: At the sound of the whistle, feet shuffled, bodies squirmed, faces scrunched, and throats grunted as the opposing teams used every ounce of strength in their bodies . . . in the struggle for victory!

On Urban Cowboy Day, Anna Garcia was steppin' out in the popular western look.

What was happening in the Amphitheater? Did the L.A. Zoo let loose a few of their tenants? No, not quite, but Gardena High did for a Noon Pep Rally.

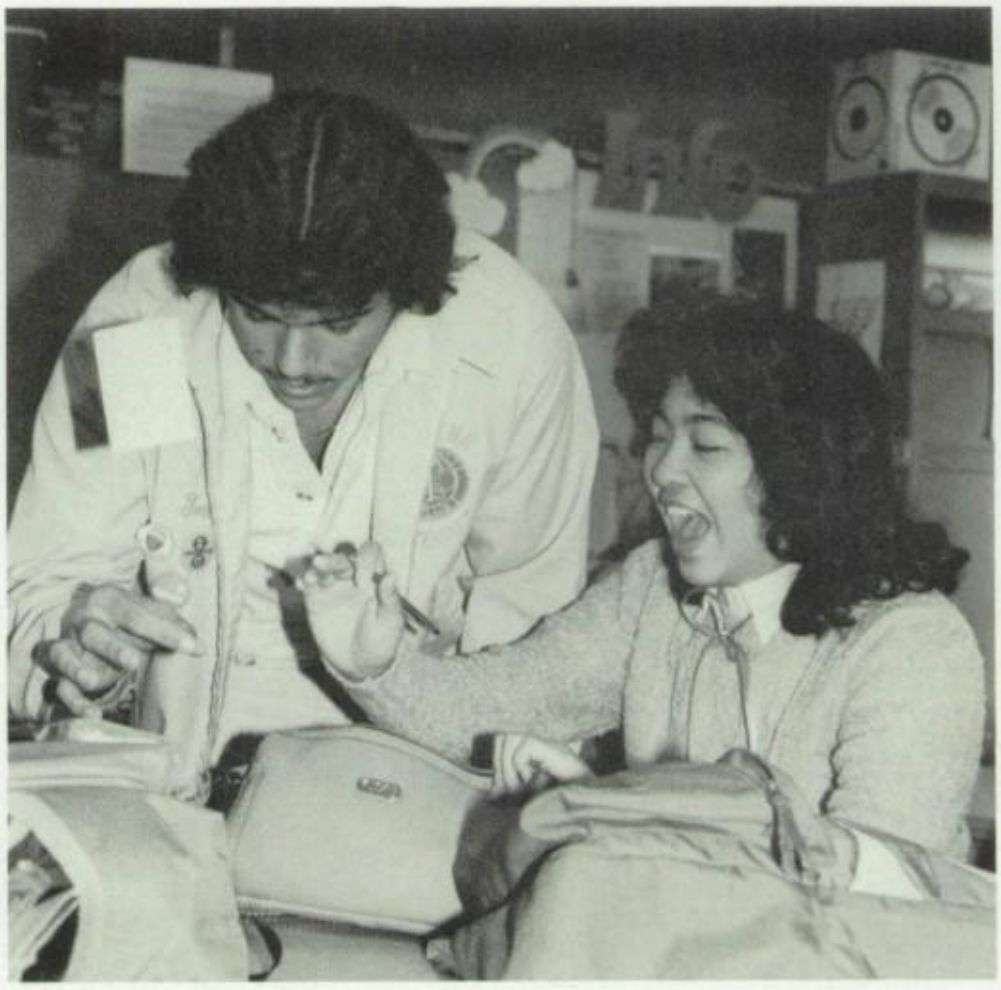
. . . Spring Leadership

SPRING FEVER

What's happening to the Spirit Stalker? He's showing signs of a strange, new disease . . . it's not malaria or the mumps . . . it's . . . it's . . . Spring Fever!

The symptoms of this strange disease were evident across campus: sunny days, lots of energy, and a new list of activities for the Spring Semester. It was these symptoms that made Gardena High School come back alive! Just how did the Spirit Stalker catch this strange disease?



. . . It all started when the newly elected leadership officers noticed fatigue in the Spirit Stalker: he was no longer stalking the campus with the energy and enthusiasm he once had!

Leadership would have to act — there was no question about it. But could they win against their two enemies: Time and Inexperience? There was only one way to find out. Putting aside the fact that the spring semester was shorter than the fall and that the majority of the class had no prior experience, the officers plunged head first into their new jobs.

The fresh blood of ideas and enthusiasm of the newly elected officers combined with the expertise, know-how and dedication of the old, were enough for leadership to conjure up a potent remedy.

When at last the potion was formulated, they snuck up behind the lethargic Spirit Stalker and injected him . . . full dose. In minutes, the Spirit Stalker was jumping, leaping, and springing about spreading Spring Fever to everyone around.

It was the most energizing campus wide epidemic Gardena High School had ever seen!

Although the Leadership class was never thanked for the long hours of dedication involved, this never interfered with their main purpose of injecting the Spirit Stalker with the formulated goals of the class.

CUPID STRIKES AGAIN!!

All across Gardena High love is . . .

ty-seventh, Gardena High celebrated its second annual Sweetheart Dance. Co-ordination and location, combined with the traditional coronation ceremony, transformed the dance into "A Precious Night for Love."

As first-time co-ordinators of the dance, the Coeds aimed their Cupid arrows at everybody to encourage the sale of bids. Not since the Knights and LL's sponsored Silver Bells had one of Gardena's service clubs organized such an affair.

Adding to the elegance of the event, the location was elevated from the Social Hall to the chic Edgewater Hyatt Hotel. Large mirrors enclosed the staircase leading up to the spacious Empire Ballroom. The Hyatt House provided a haven for students to escape from school surroundings.

Although these two elements added new excitement to the dance, the traditional coronation ceremony was still the highlight of the evening.

"Who will be the Sweetheart Queen and Court?" was the mystical question murmured throughout the night. How thrilling it was when Audrey Hirayama was proclaimed the Sweetheart Queen, along with reigning princesses, Janeen Hino (Junior) and Jill Iwai (Sophomore).

The 1981 Sweetheart Dance proved to be a smashing success, setting a precedent as one of the biggest formal affairs of Gardena High School. For those who missed out, don't be surprised if Cupid aims his arrow at you next year!

Pictures to remember the evening by were important to Sonya Barber and Derron Collett, as they did their best to "watch the birdie".

One main attraction of the evening was the electrifying Abril Garcia.

. . . Japanese Exchange

AMERIKA, AISHIMASU

"America is very big and wide. Gardena students is very kind and people is very tall. Clothes is expensive, but food is cheap."

This quote given by Nobuko Masuda was her first impression of Gardena High and America in general. Due to the fact that their stay was only one month long, it was impossible for them to know the American way of life as we do. Through informal interviews, we were able to see what these 11 students learned and observed about the similarities and differences of America and Japan.

Q. "How does Gardena High compare with Yoshida High?"

A. (Tomoko) "I think it is very free here. A little too much. In Japan, studying is a MUST! There is high competition with classmates. Suicide is high because of pressure. We feel disgraced to family if we fail."

Q. "What do you think about our students?"

A. (Tomoko) "Students look older than real age."

A. (Masae) "Gardena students look like they really enjoy themselves at school. Looks fresh, living. People looks cheerful and everyone is living with their purpose in life."

Q. "Do many students in Japan drive?"

A. (Teruko) "In Japan, from 18 they can drive. It is very expensive for driver's license — about $1,000! I think, Gardena High you can drive is nice."

Q. "What do you do on the weekends?"

A. (Teruko) "In Japan we don't go out at night because we don't have car and it's a school rule. I don't like it and it is especially hard for girls. Boys can go out until 9:00 p.m., but girls only until sunset."

With all of the exciting activities planned for the Yoshida students, April 2 came much too fast. At the farewell banquet, many tears were shed as each one expressed his gratitude and desire to stay or return some day. These are the last sentiments of Masae Sugiura:

"Half I want to go home Japan, but half I want to stay here. Confused, I am very sad to leave. I will miss friends the most, Linda, and many people. I want to see my family. My mother and friends make me want to go back to Japan. School, a little and my house."

Mika Shigemura's fantasy came to life when she met Disneyland's legendary Mickey Mouse.

Miyoko Yamashita, Teruko Agata, and Chieko Yoshii picked up a few unusual habits from the Squires.

As a member of Interact, one of the six service clubs which took a turn at entertaining the students, Ann Shimamura learned how to score a miniature golf game from Tsunagu Suzuki.

. . . Sadie Hawkins

"AMUZIN' BUT CONFUZIN' "

. . . as Daisy Mae might say.

The poor girl, who'd been trying to catch Lil' Abner for years, looked forward to the annual Sadie Hawkins Day. For this "holiday" in the town of Dogpatch "Marryin' Sam" happily hitched any unmarried female to the fear-crazed bachelor she had managed to trap. Daisy Mae was never quite successful, but there was always next year . . .

Carryin' on this hoop-hollerin' tradition, the Squires and Leadership planned Gardena High's annual Sadie Hawkins dance. Like the original, the dance gave the girls a chance to do the askin'.

The hay-filled Social Hall turned into an animal farm the night of March 27. Music, laughter, shouts of "do-si-do" and "swing your partner!" caroomed off all four walls. There was enough noise to drown out a barnful of squealin' pigs and cacklin' hens!

Talk about cacklin' hens . . . Once a man had been dragged into matrimony in Dogpatch, his bride felt safe to cackle all she wanted. But in Gardena, the men were pree-pared! If a husband became too hen-pecked, he simply took his gal down to the "dee-vorce post" — ten yards away from the "hitchin' post". There a vow of unfaithfulness and slap of faces made the dee-vorce official.

The city slicker look has been sneakin' in with the country duds for the past few years. In addition to good ol' Levi's, plaid shirts, suspenders, and gingham skirts, there were new-fangled O.P. shirts, Vans, look-alike outfits for couples, and designer jeans. (Who or what in tarnation is a Sasson?!)

Dee-vorces, city-slickers, Calvin Klein's . . . quite different from the celebration in Daisy Mae's time, but wild n' crazy all the same. For all the sophomores and juniors who foolishly missed out on the fun, there's always next year . . .

"The Man with the Golden Gun", seemed to have run out of bullets.

"Your time is UP!" declared Judge Nannie Toy to newlyweds Stan Abe and Steph Sato.

While taking a break, freckled Norma Bermudez pointed out to Janet Rojas and Maribel Bittner, "Look at them cuuute fellers over thar!"

. . . Entertainment

THAT'S ENTERTAINMENT

Southern California offers entertainment for everyone in a unique blend of city, ocean, and mountains. Gardena High students took advantage of their "life-outside-the-classroom" to enjoy the excitement of the "Big City", as well as the beauty and calm of the "Great Outdoors".

Favorite places to gather on weekends in the city were local shopping malls, bowling alleys, arcades, and amusement parks like Disneyland, Magic Mountain, and Knott's Berry Farm; the mountains offered such pursuits as hiking, fishing, and skiing. With just these activities to choose from, we could be the envy of fun-lovers everywhere . . . but there's more!

With Hollywood, the "movie capitol of the world", so close to Gardena, movie buffs always had a first-rate selection of films. "Dressed to Kill was good, and I liked Zombie . . . gross! But Prom Night wasn't scary at all!" exclaimed horror movie fan Joe Bailey. Biographical movies such as The Elephant Man and Raging Bull seemed to be very popular this year, in addition to dramas, comedies, musicals, and love stories.

Sun worshippers, grateful for the warm South Bay climate,enjoyed the beach all year round. The active surfed, swam, skated, jogged, and biked; others were content to just lay on the sand. "I really like the beach," commented one sophomore. "Just being in the sun, seeing all the people . . . there's something special about it."

Music lovers chose from many concerts and records for their listening enjoyment. Popular artists included Cameo, Styx,the Pretenders, Van Halen, Switch, Teena Marie, Hiroshima, Bruce Springsteen, and Gardena's own Bus Boys. Hard-core punk rocker Tony Arce explained why he likes listening to the groups Black Flag and the Dead Kennedys. "These groups are radical, but their image helps spread the message in their music — to be independent of society."

However we at Gardena High liked to express ourselves — through the music we listened to, the films we saw, or the places, sports, and activities we liked best — Southern California was able to provide the setting. All we had to do was "put ourselves in the picture".

Browsing through the many records available at Music Plus, Dana McIntyre found her heart throbbing for Smokey Robinson.

A playful romp along the beach was Suzanne Arakawa and Bill Garcia's cure for the "school blues".

"I could have been a star!" discovered Andre Pires, striking a pose from the movie American Pop.

With wearable souvenirs reminding them of recent concerts, Shari Stoddart and Katina Muniz found it hard to concentrate on studies.

"Man cannot live by allowance alone!" Ned Morimoto discovered a fact of life.

Sound familiar? This scene has become a part of the typical American teenager's life. Inflation is here and growing. Just five years ago, prom bids cost $33. But this year, the price skyrocketed to an incredible . . . $78 bucks!! Lunches ballooned from 75¢ to $1.00 a tray. Because of the rise of inflation, many students were forced to find a job.

Other students took jobs because they wanted to feel more independent, hated asking their parents for money, or desired a few more luxuries. As Senior Daryn Kobata put it, "What student doesn't like the sound of clinking coins?"

Although the advantages were many, the disadvantages weighed just as heavily. High-paying jobs were hard to get and being a minor didn't help. Some employers took advantage of young students, and though an illegal practice, payed under the minimum wage.

The biggest disadvantage of all was NO FREE TIME!! For Nannie Toy having a steady job conflicted seriously with her future plans: she was faced with the dilemma of keeping her job or going to Hawaii. Similarly, Darcie Kuwahara had to choose between her job or grades.

Big decisions such as these were difficult to make. There was never a single right or wrong answer: it all depended on the individual's situation and priorities.

"May we help you?" asked McDonald's night manager Sylvia Wilson and crewperson Dina Urrutia, two of many students who held fast-food jobs.

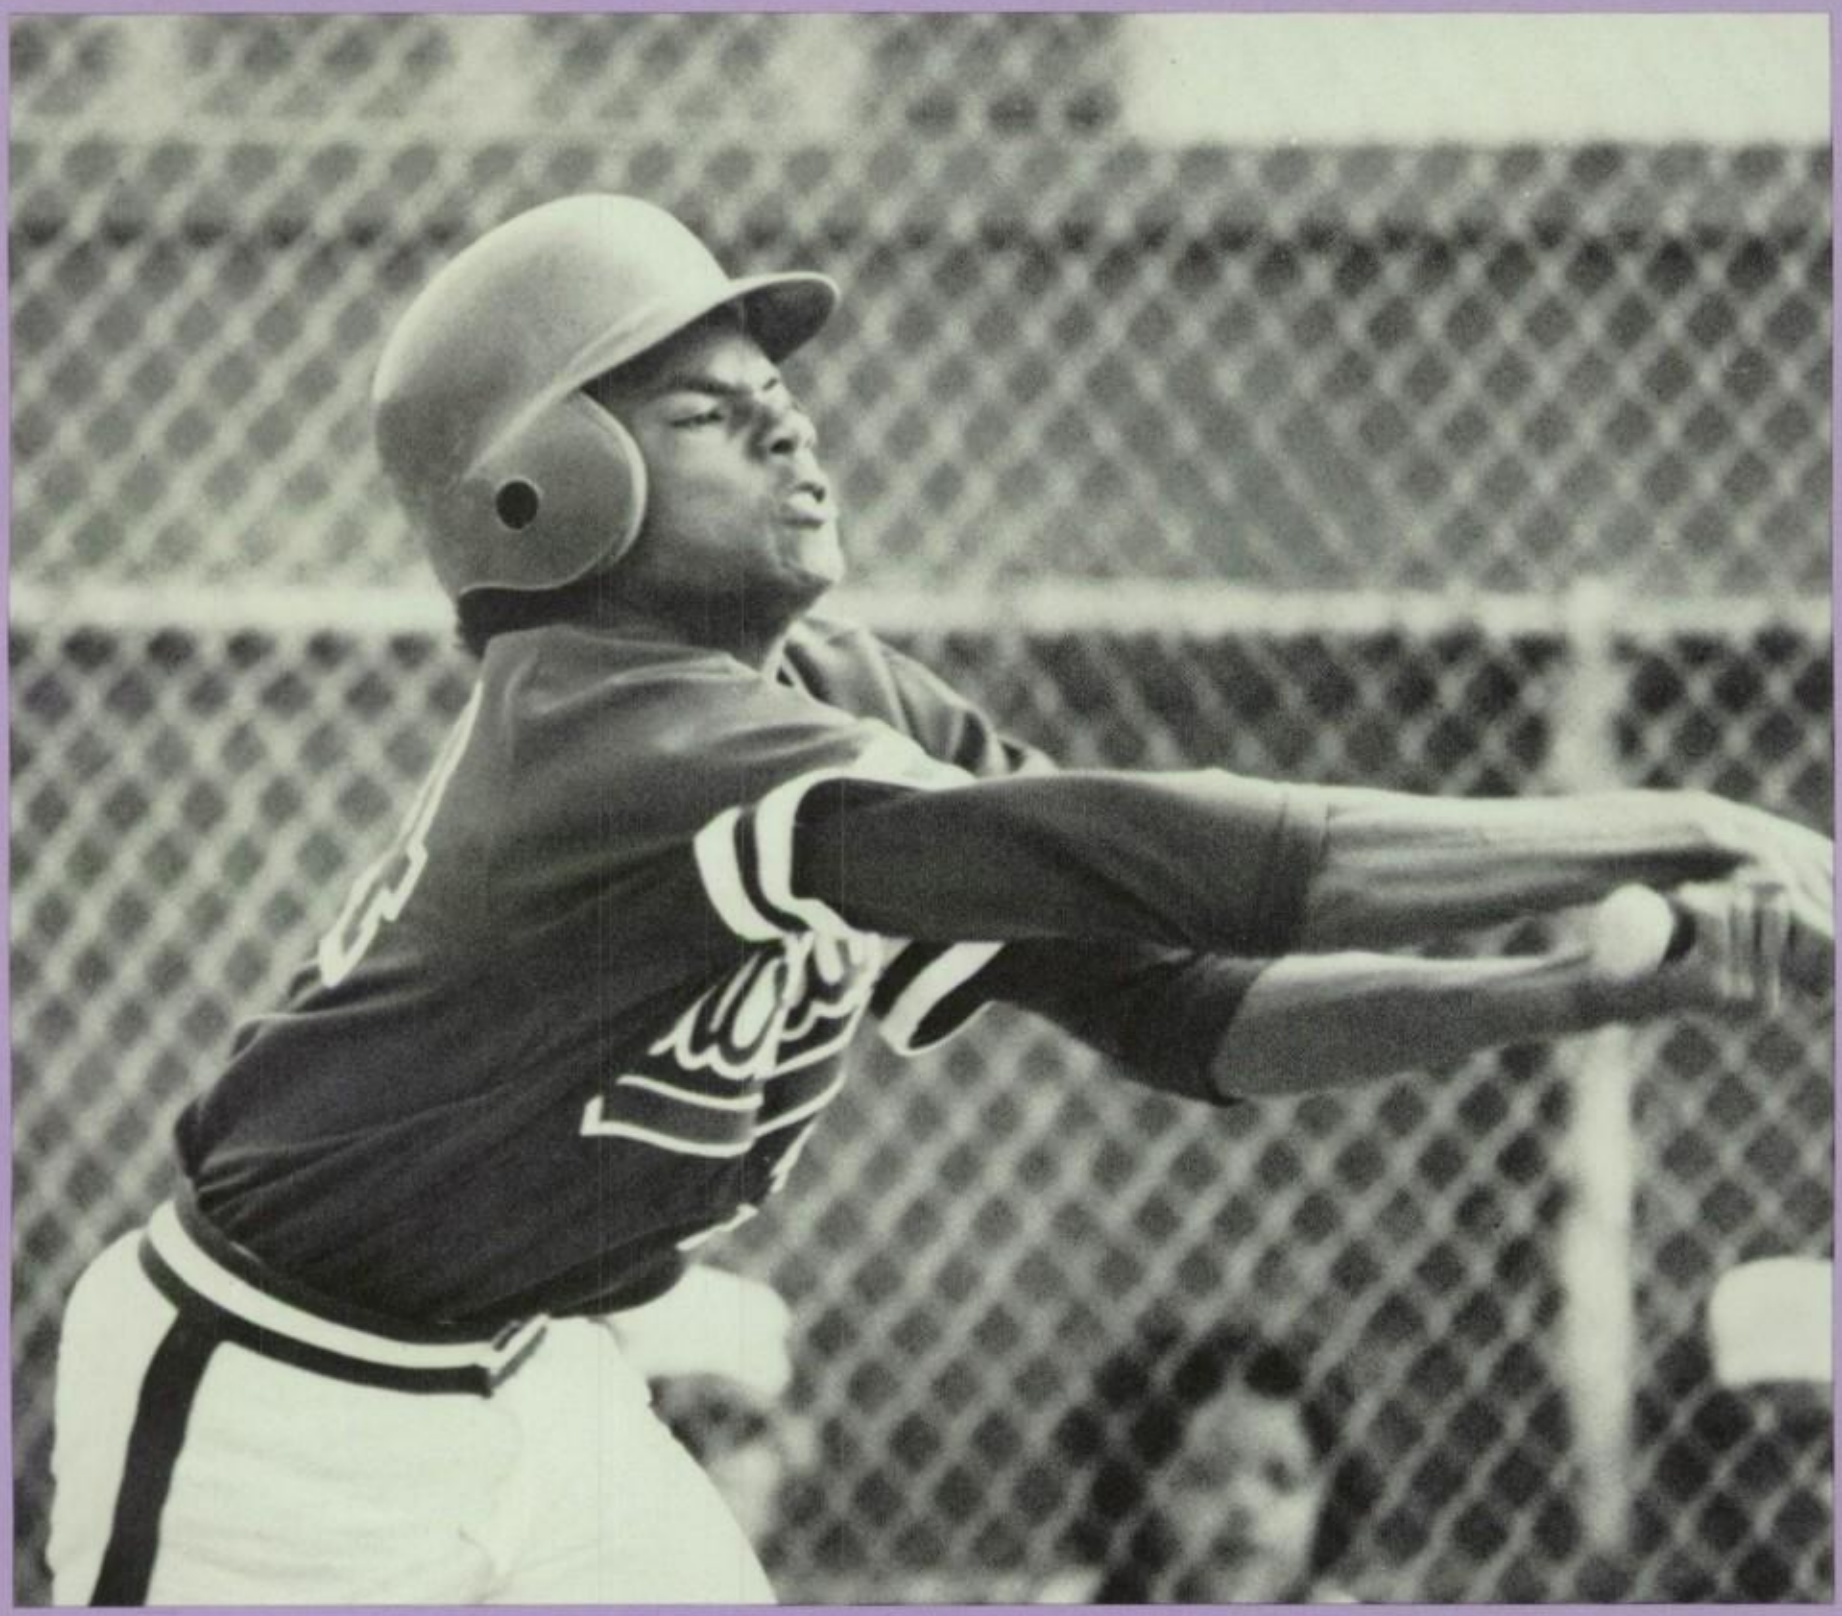
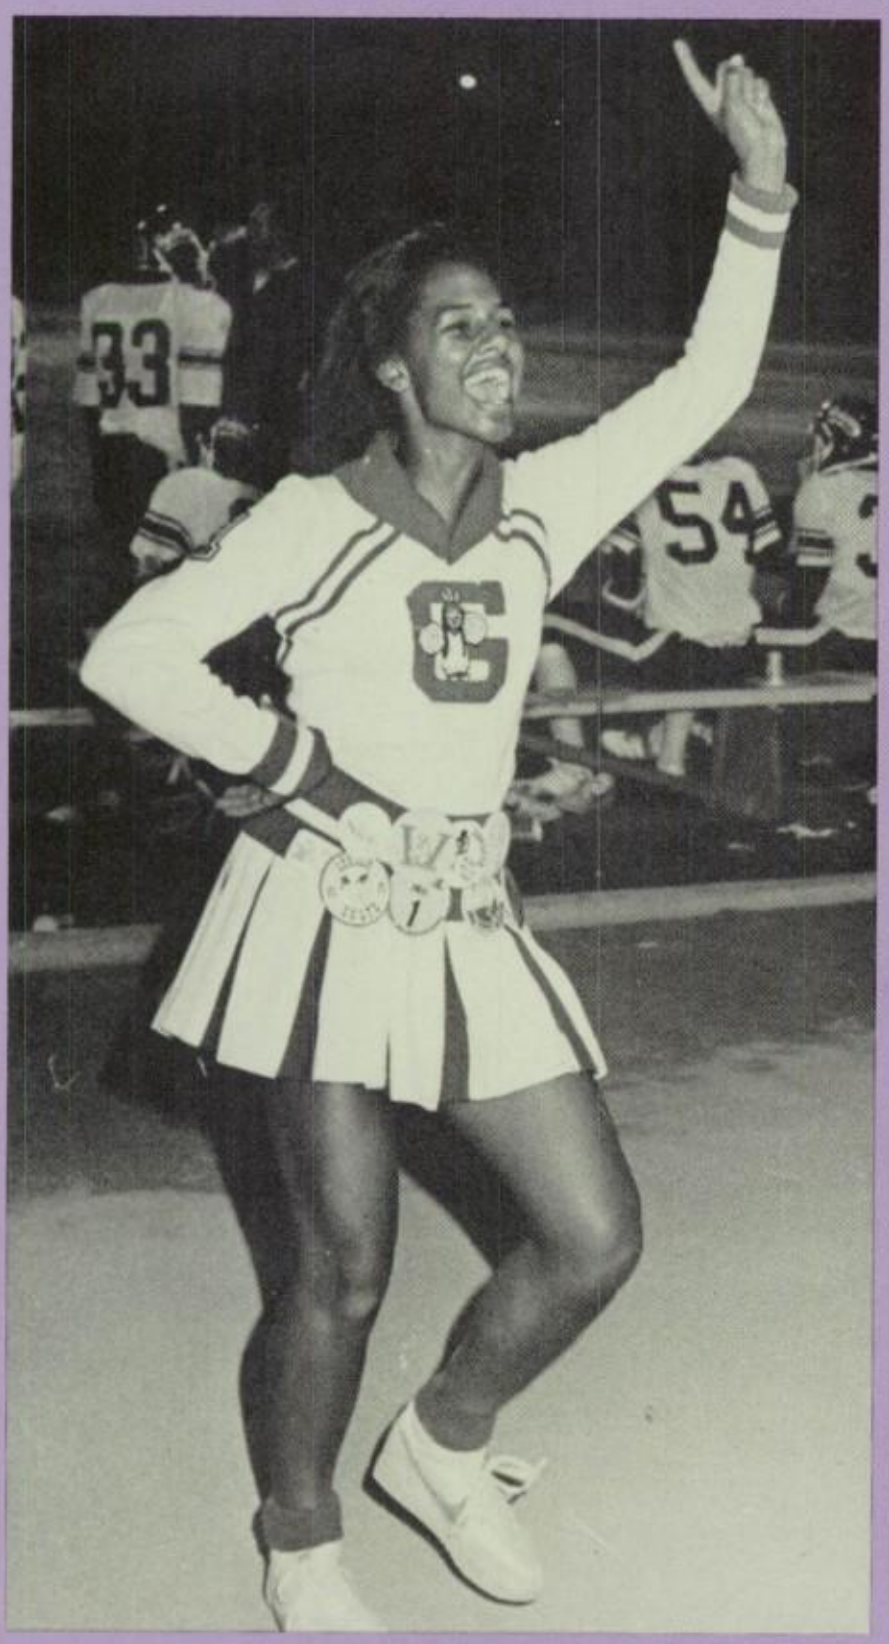
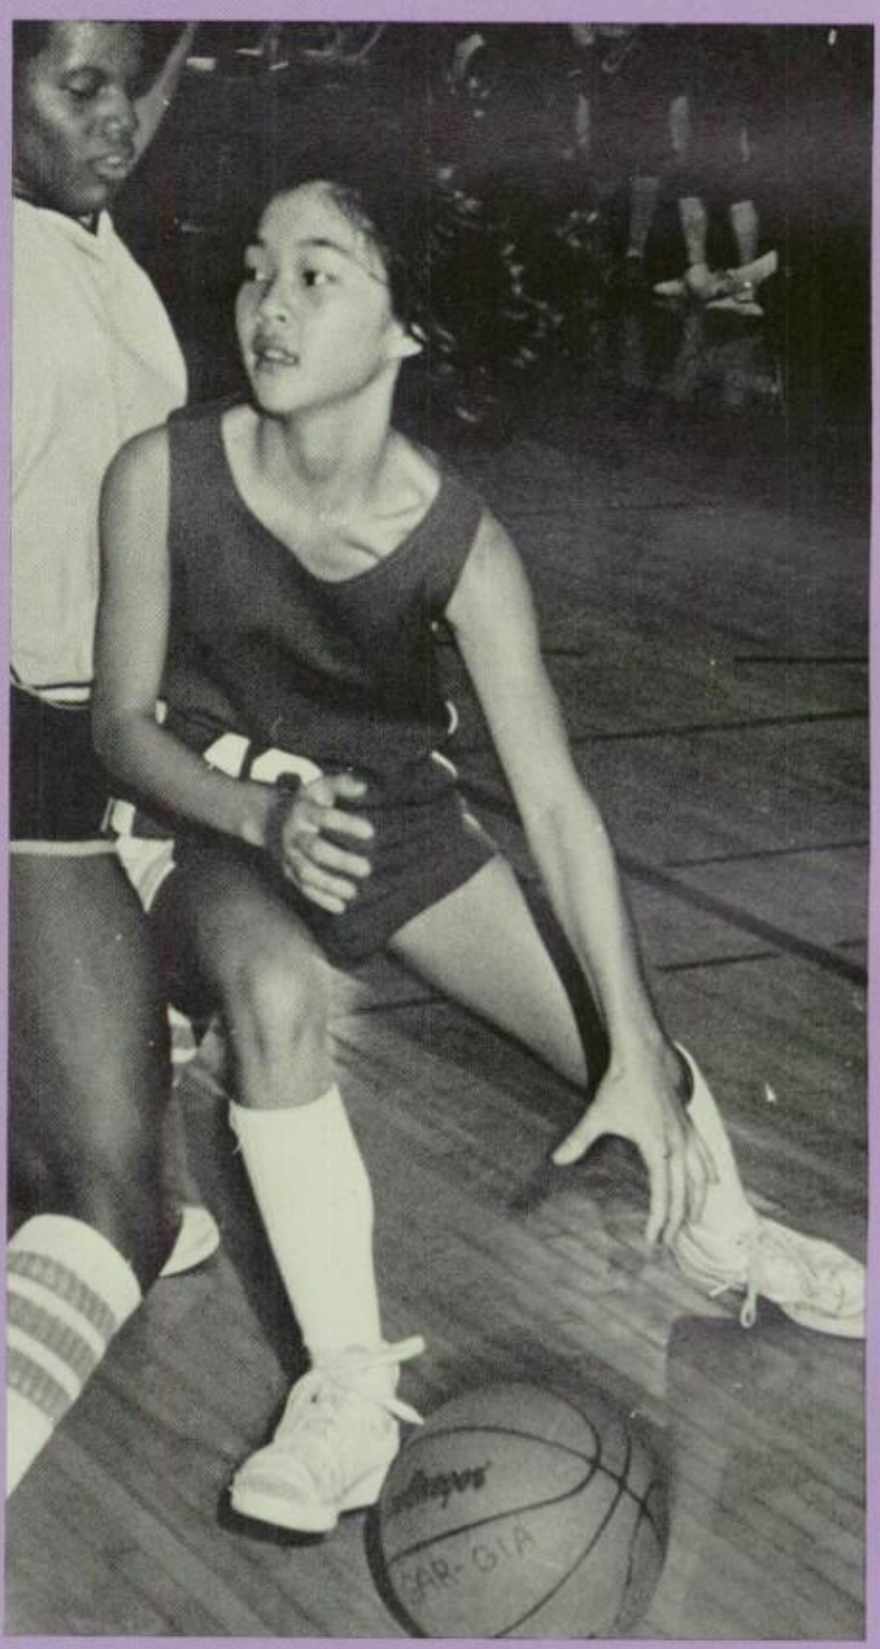
SPORTS SPECTACULAR







GILL

This was the toughest year for sports, but we made it!

Just Like Starting Over . . .

Drum roll please . . .

Welcome to the G.H.S. 1980-1981 Sports Spectacular!

Whew! Are you wondering why we, the producers of Sports Spectacular, are so relieved? Just listen a second to this tape, recorded last September, and you'll see!

"What?!?! I'm gonna die if there aren't any sports! Why are they picking on sports anyways? You've got to be kidding . . ."

Would there be any sports at all? That was the all-important question. Talk of budget cuts in sports followed by possible coaches walk-outs kept us in painful suspense.*

But, as time passed, things began to fall into place . . . Yes! Team sports are in . . . Yes, budget cuts with few compromises . . . No, coaches will not walk-out!! At last — with all lights signaling green — we reloaded our cameras and shot the most spectacular sporting events of the decade.

From working on this particular reel, we learned that each year our athletes give their all to their respected sport, and yet, no sports year is ever the same. Each season is unique in its own way. As you watch the G.H.S. Sports Spectacular, consider the dedication and enthusiasm each athlete gave.

You will find we have had our share of the "thrill of victory" and the "agony of defeat".

Enjoy . . .

A telethon, sponsored by KHJ, was held in November 1980 to raise money for high school sports. Named the S.O.S. (Save Our Sports) Telethon, the event raised $128,000. Not quite enough to restore all the sports, but enough to get the course a bit smoother for the sports year.*

The "stars" shone brightly for our 75th Anniversary Homecoming despite the unfortunate loss on the field.

"A Classic Affair"

Friday . . . November 24, 1980. In the quiet of the dawn — on the stroke of eight — the Homecoming preparations began. Squires loomed the stadium with green and white streamers; Leadership posted the "75th Diamond Anniversary" banner in the social hall; and students capered around campus with helium balloons. By noon, hundreds of other club members ran around in preparation of the Homecoming game and dance.

As dusk set in, spectators began to fill the stadium. They bought programs, and then pushed and shoved to find a comfortable spot where the view was good. Expectation overflowed. The stadium had never seemed so full of excitement and anticipation!

The Game:

With confidence and determination, the Mohicans met their arch-rival, the Carson Colts. It was sure to be a close game — if not a win — for the undefeated Mohicans. The final score, however, prevailed differently: a 28-0 shutout for the Carson Colts. Still, the excitement of the coronation and of the dance that followed overwhelmed the disappointment of the game.

The Coronation:

She was stunned . . .

He sighed a breath of relief . . .

Arm in arm, King Eric Newby and Queen Wendy Yonamine reigned over the Homecoming Festivities!!

These two very special people touched the hearts of hundreds watching. Both conveyed that one-in-a-million smile and warm personality for which they are famous.

It was a classic affair they'll never forget!!

"One Step Closer"

Both teams refused to yield. Peppy Mohican Cheerleaders shouted, "Take-that-ball-away, I said, take that ball away!" At the end of 3 sluggishly played quarters, the score between the Fremont Pathfinders and our Mohicans was locked at a 6-6 tie.

Then the wild point scoring 4th quarter began . . .

The Pathfinders scored first, on a 10 yard pass play for a touch-down; but missed the important extra point attempt.

With 6 minutes left, the Mighty Mohicans took possession on their own 27 yard line and mounted an incredible 8 play, 73 yard touchdown drive to grab the lead, 13-12. Gardena fans went wild, sensing a probable Mohican victory.

Play continued . . . Suddenly the Mohican sideline erupted, "That wasn't a first down!" In anguish they watched their defensive line stumble farther and farther back; the Pathfinders boring their way into kicking range. Tension mounted to an unbearable peak as both sides knew the game could go either way. Then, with only 32 seconds left to spare, the Pathfinders kicked a successful field goal, claiming victory with a 15-13 lead!

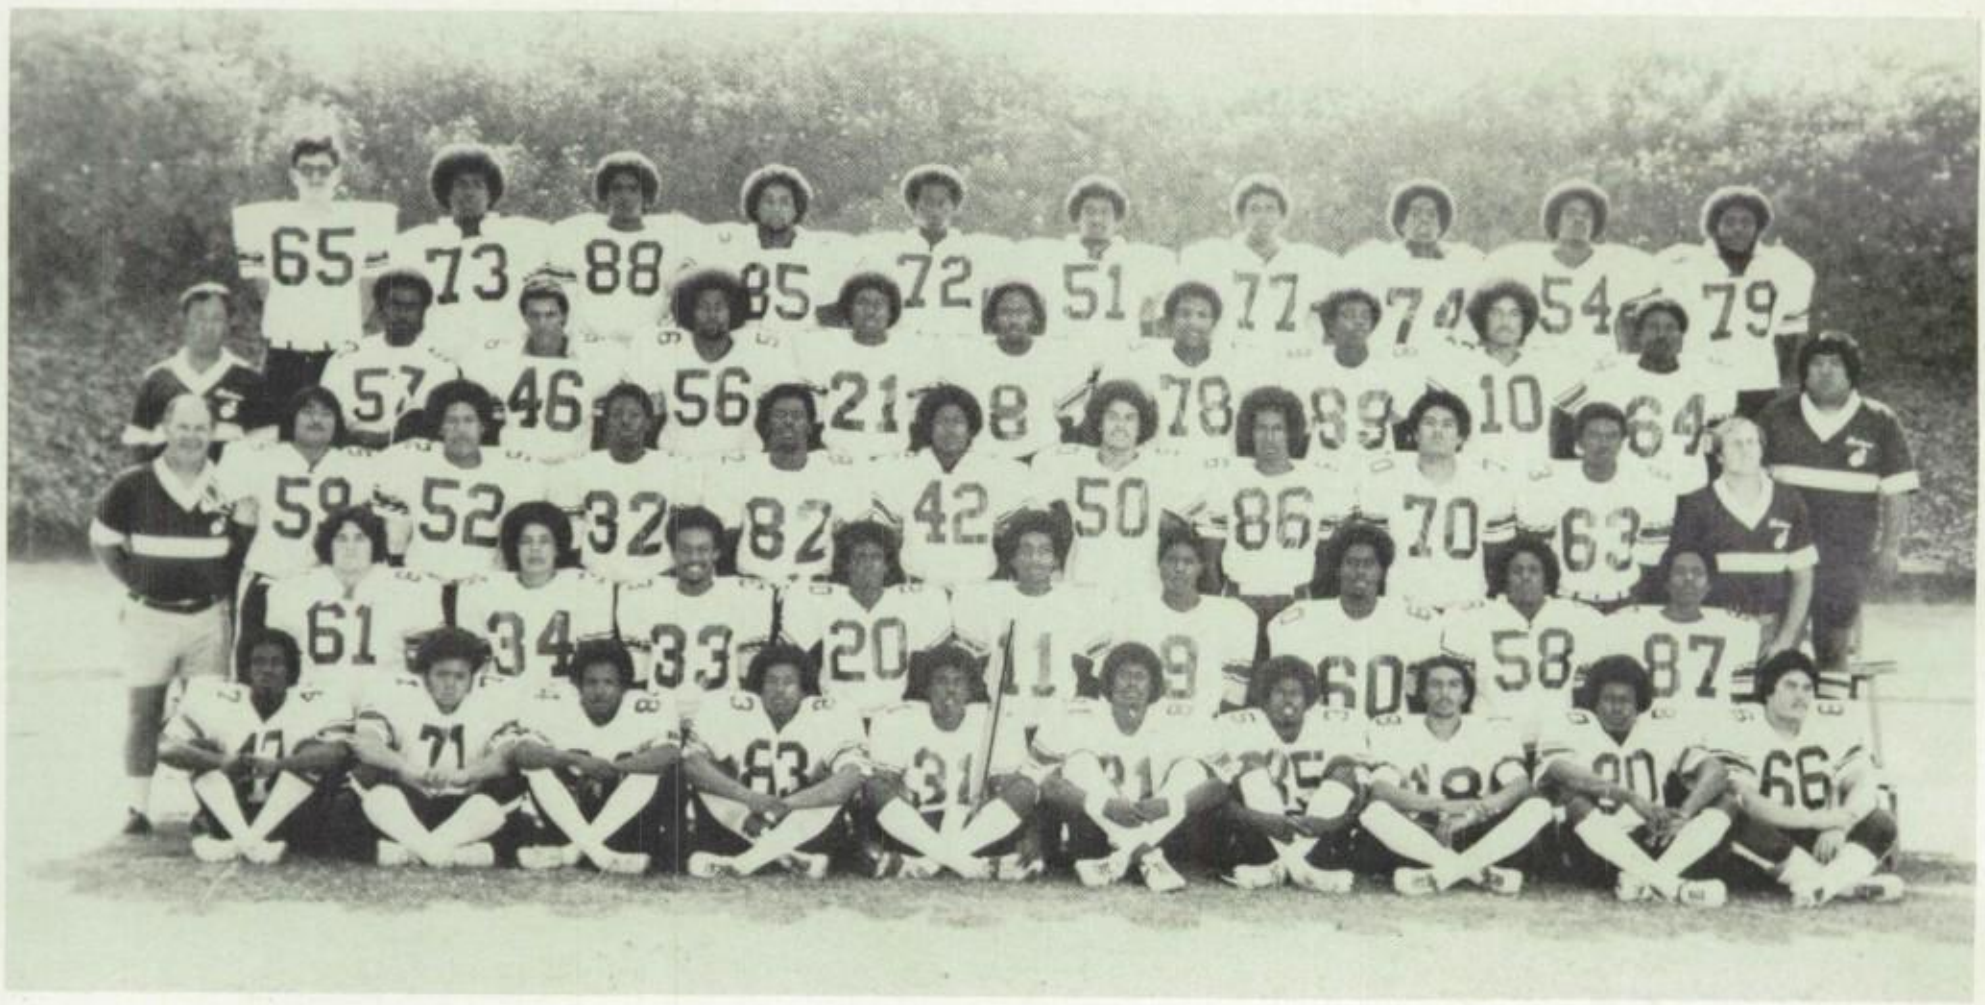
Mohican hearts sank; Fremont spirits elated. The visitor's half of the stadium poured onto the track circling the football field, while the Mohican half shook their heads in disbelief.

With 18 seconds left, Mohican safety, Reginald Richardson received the kick-off ball. The Mohican fans gazed apathetically as he darted straight into a cluster of Mohican-Pathfinder players. 17 seconds . . . he "gazelled" his way through the nucleus of players . . . 16 seconds . . . he left the cluster behind . . . 15 seconds . . . the Mohican stands erupted . . . 14 seconds . . . they screamed as two Pathfinders came closing in from behind . . . 13 seconds . . . one of the Pathfinders grabbed Richardson by the leg . . . 12 seconds . . . Richardson started to fall . . . 11 seconds . . . he knocked the corner post of the endzone to score the winning touchdown, then stumbled out onto the sidelines. The final score — 20-15, Gardena!!

Now it was the Mohican fans that poured onto the field and the Pathfinders who shook their heads in disbelief.

After this exciting league opener with Fremont, the Mohicans went on to beat the Washington Generals; then suffered tough losses to the Carson Colts and the Banning Pilots. Gardena ended their season tied for second place with Fremont and Carson in the Harbor League. Unfortunately, the Mohicans lost the California Tie-Breaker to the Carson Colts, and finished with an overall record of 6-2-1.

No playoffs for Gardena this year, but don't underestimate our guys . . . they had a fine season and we are proud of them!!



GAME BY GAME

The season opener against South Gate ended in a somewhat disappointing 7-7 tie. Andre Wheeler scored the only touchdown of the game and collected a total of 80 yards rushing. Both teams were scoreless in the second half.

The scoring combination of David Hollis and Rob Thornton gave us a 14-3 victory over Wilson. Sophomore quarterback David Hollis ran for two touchdowns while teammate Rob Thornton came through with two successful p.a.t.'s.

Defense was a key factor in our first victory — a devastating 28-0 shut-out over Marshall. David Phillips and Mack Roath contributed to our scoring attack as they demonstrated how aggressive defense can result in scoring opportunities. The two defensive backs finished with a total of 12 points collectively.

In the suspenseful league-opener against Fremont, Reginald Richardson saved the game with a stunning 80-yard kick-off return in the last 18 seconds to score the winning touchdown. Andre Wheeler, who carried the ball 18 times for 104 yards, was also a key player in the thrilling 20-15 victory over the Pathfinders.

Our 238-yard offense and tough second-half defense overpowered the Palisade Dolphins for another victory. Tight-end Titus Jackson scored off of a pass by David Hollis from the Pali 41-yard line in the second quarter. Medgar Parrish bolted up the middle for a touchdown, and Andre Wheeler went in for the two-point p.a.t. (point after touchdown) to close the first half at 14-7, Mohicans.

We terminated Kennedy's winning streak, outscoring our previously undefeated opponent 27-19, for our fifth consecutive victory. Senior Medgar Parrish ran for two touchdowns, and Kevin Ferguson made a fumble recovery for an additional six points.

The sixth consecutive victory came with the defeat of the Washington Democrats, 14-10. Runningback Jeffery Jones, replacing injured Medgar Parrish, carried the ball 17 times for a net of 57 yards. David Hollis and Andre Wheeler scored six points each, with Rob Thornton kicking twice for the p.a.t.

In our final league game, Banning reinforced their number one City ranking as we suffered our second loss of the season. Final score: Pilots-40, Mohicans-7. Senior Cedric McCray scored our only touchdown off a 50-yard pass from David Hollis. The Pilots' forty points is the most they've ever scored against our team in the history of GHS. This loss put us in a 3-way tie with Carson and Fremont for a play-off position.

We finally met our match at our Homecoming game with the Carson Colts. Carson, in a must-win situation for a play-off spot, turned the game into a 28-0 shutout. This was our first loss of the season, making our record 2-1 in the Harbor League, and 6-1-1 overall.

With the flip of a coin, Fremont won one of the play-off spots; consequently, we faced a rematch with the Colts in a "California Tie-Breaker". In this modified tie-breaker, the teams began at the 50-yard line – each team possessing the ball 8 times, alternating with every play. Carson John Moreno's 25-yard pass to Alex Salima gave them the 1-0 win, stealing our chances for a play-off berth.

A bunch of hams! Mohican fans took deep pride in their team and backed them up one hundred percent.

Prohibited to rise from the bench, Everette Wade blasted out "De-fense!! De-fense!!" as the Mohicans stumbled farther and farther back.

A perfect execution of the "Ski Jump" . . . Enthusiasm and spirit helped to promote Angel Garcia to Varsity Cheerleader for the 1981-82 year.

What a unique summer for our BEE Cheerleaders and Football Team.

"Together . . . We Were a Strong Force"

What does "summer vacation" mean to you? . . . watching soaps, getting tickets to rock concerts, and laying out on the beach? Well – for our BEE's, their cheerleaders, and their coaching staff – it meant more than leisurely fun and games. It meant "sweating it out" for hours in the blazing summer heat.

For four straight weeks, two hours a day, prospective players worked to prove worthiness for the team. A part of this tryout period was the so-called "hell week" – a test of stamina summed up in one word: endurance. Of 120 hopefuls, 40 were chosen to play on the team.

At the same time, the BEE cheerleaders prepared to light-up the sidelines with perfection, by planning their uniform, attending summer camp, and polishing up their spirit-boosting routines.

With morale as an important factor, Coach Ray Maggard and his assistants: Bob Sugino, Tad Mori, and Rob Ito, guided the team to a commendable #3 ranking in the Harbor League, with an overall record of 6-3. Coach Maggard commented that ". . . this team demonstrated that they had a lot of talent . . . they weren't 'beaten' in any of those (three) games . . ." The team's Achilles' heel, Maggs believed, was their inability to utilize full team potential in crucial situations.

Nevertheless, the long hours of training and practicing paid off when nine members of the squad made the All-Harbor League team. Offensive selections were: James Hardy – wide receiver; Eric Evans – offensive guard; Erik Barnes – full back; Kevin Williams half back; Ronald Knight – offensive tackle; and Marcus LeNoir – quarterback. Players chosen for the defensive team were: Abril Garcia – defensive end; and Freddie Griffin – strong safety.

Rainchecks on Magic Mountain, skating, and T.V. are easy to get . . . But never again will the BEE football players and cheerleaders experience the thrill and excitement they worked so hard to get!

Voted 1st Team All-League for her exceptional playing skill, guard Sandy Tabuchi was always "in the running" despite a painful knee injury.

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team, with much determination and a flip of the coin, made it to the play-offs.

Suddenly . . . We Were in the Play-Offs!

QUESTION: What do you get when you add 5 seniors, 8 juniors, 2 sophomores, and a basketball?

ANSWER: The Gardena High School Girls' Varsity Basketball Team!

O.K., so you didn't do so well on the first question. Try the next one!

QUESTION: Is it possible for a basketball team to finish at 7-5 and also have participated in the city play-offs?

ANSWER: Yes!!!!

The Gardena High Girls' Varsity Basketball Team, coached by William Sweatt, can testify to the above.

Although a knee injury to senior guard Sandy Tabuchi late in the season hampered Gardena's hopes of reaching a play-off spot, the emergence of sophomore guard Patti Jung, and the consistent play of seniors, Carrie Ishitani and Tina Edwards led the team to a second place tie with Carson in the always tough Marine League.

With only the first and second place teams in each league going to the play-offs, a coin was flipped between Carson and our Mohicans to see who would join Locke in post-season play. We won the toss and consequently, made the play-offs!

Unfortunately, the Mohicans were ousted in their first round game against a strong University High team. A bit of disappointment for Gardena but most of the team will be back next year to challenge the city!

The Girl's JV basketball team was small — but like the tiny atom — they were an explosive force.

Take it to the Hoop

Imagine . . . fighting for rebounds against girls six inches taller than you!

With a 5'3" height disadvantage, the JV Basketball Team relied on speed, timing, teamwork and strategy to win. The key to their strategy was position; getting to the most advantageous spot before the opponent. This required quick thinking from all players, both offensively and defensively.

By keeping the game moving in high gear, the opponent was often forced out of their usual game . . . and forced into Gardena's fast-paced, fast breaking game. Top rebounders Cheryl Banton and Cheryl Tabata covered the boards, while guards Lisa Oyama and Stacy Tabuchi led the scoring attack.

Through hours of practice, the girls strove to develop their skill, agility, and positive attitude on the court. At the end of league play, they emerged undefeated, and went on to the City Play-offs.

Once winning the quarter-final match, they proceeded to the semi-finals where they suffered a heart-breaking loss to El Camino Real. Had the JV's won, they would've had a shot at the City Championship; a title GHS had held for three years in a row.

Though they fell short of the City title, the energetic JV's succeeded in reaffirming their position as the most highly potent force in the league . . . the Marine League Champs of 1980!

His all-around playing skills earned Glenn Kusunoki a position on the All-League team.

Somehow . . . some way — it happened.

Could it be Magic?

After ending the first round with a 1-4 record, it seemed unlikely that the team would see any action in the play-offs. But the Mohicans seemed to have a touch of magic on their side in the second round . . .

Led by First-team All League choice Glenn Kusunoki, the team poured it on to win three of their remaining games — giving them the fourth place position and a guaranteed play-off spot.

But alas, the spell was broken when they faced Kennedy as their first challenger in the city play-offs. Although they put up a fight, the team's inexperience and height disadvantage proved to be the Mohicans' undoing: final score — Gardena 63, Kennedy 98.

Through this season of magic moments and disappointments, the team gained what Coach Aoki called mental toughness . . . "It's very satisfying to see a young team mature over the season. I'm very happy with the progress they've all made."

Passing over a defender's arm, Ontario Johnson looked downcourt for help in breaking the press.

Through thick and thin, the JV, BEE and CEE Basketball teams defended the Mohican name.

Three in the Key

The pressure was on for our JV's . . . in more ways than one.

They started the season with a bang! Their pressing defense and come-from-behind wins carried them through an impressive pre-season, making them "the team to beat".

After ending the first round of league play the Mohicans were still within reach of the Marine League title. It was crucial that the team endure the pressure in this second round in order to clinch it. Alas, the JV's spunk fizzled out as they suffered discouraging losses to San Pedro, Banning, and Carson. They concluded league play with an overall record of 5-5.

Even though the hopes of the league crown were gone, the season didn't go to waste: it produced experienced players with Varsity potential. Forward Anthony Fredricks and guard David Holliday provided leadership on the court, while Ed Amado balanced the floor with constant rebounding.

This year, both the BEE's and CEE's learned that winning isn't everything . . . that success is peace of mind acquired through self-satisfaction. Under the coaching of Robert Karbach, these teams showed good physical condition, proper and quick execution, and teamwork!

An "inside game" play was the strong point of the BEE's. Rather than relying on outside shooters, they used the skills of top scorer Don Winbush to get the high-percentage shot; and the leaping abilities of forward Michael Arnold for rebounding power.

The CEE's, on the other hand, were attributed with speed and accurate outside shooting, and began the year with an excellent pre-season. As with the JV's, however, the team suffered costly losses when the crucial time arrived. Sophomore Craig Tokishi led in scoring, while teammate Derron Matsumoto balanced the team as an all-around player.

Coming on strong in the latter part of the season, David "Iceman" Holliday stayed cool and collected — even under pressure.

A winning duo.

Hitt and Chew

Since the beginning of time, the active participation of boys in sports has been as natural as the setting of the sun. Just as natural has been the formulation of girls as sports queens — whether it be for Miss Basketball, Miss Football, Spring Sports Queen, or the Fall Sports Queen. But the participation of girls as sports competitors has been a most gradual and unfairly belated process.

Through the Girls' Athletic Association, a popular LAUSD organization of the 60's, girls were able to compete in tournaments held over a period of days (playdays) for the first time in the LA Unified Schools.

It wasn't until this past decade — with the popularity of female tennis star Billie Jean King, followed by the passing of the coeducational law — that schools, however, have been providing girls with sports programs comparable to that of the boys. From the volleyball and gymnastic teams of 1974, girls' teams have expanded to include basketball, track, tennis, and . . . luckily . . . softball.

Had it not been for the tremendous dedication of Coaches Barbara Hitt and Jo Ellen Chew, the JV and Varsity Softball teams would have stood total elimination.

Both coaches volunteered to come all the way from Wilmington and the Valley after a full day of teaching in order that the teams could exist.

As Ms. Hitt put it, "I did it for the kids. They wanted to play, and they deserved that chance to play." In regard to the sports program, she pointed out, "The girls' program is 'if-y'. If we lose it now (softball), it'll be hard to get back."

Yes, the struggle for a stable sports program is still on — but with the devotion of coaches like Hitt and Chew, we still might make it!

Pride on the Line

Returning pitcher Rei Umekubo warmed up during the Banning game.

"Scrappy, aggressive, hustling, talented, and most of all, a desire to win," raved Mike Sakurai, two year coach of the Varsity Baseball Team.

Unlike the previous five years, the team shone with an unusually high amount of talent, evident in the striking performance of shortstop Lou Langie. At the ever tough Lynwood game, Lou batted four for four — hitting two doubles and scoring three runs.

So impressive was his playing that countless colleges — most notably USC, Arizona State and UCLA — scouted him out throughout the season offering full athletic scholarships.

Combined with second baseman Mike Haggood, the pair made what Coach Sakurai considered one of the top double play duos in the area. Adding to the team's success was Lyle Nojima who provided good leadership behind the plate, as did Eric Newby in the outfield.

With these four players — and the expertise coaching of Mike Sakurai and 1978 All-League Player Tom Mellsborn — the entire team produced an array of energy greater than the sun itself.

Together they took a risk . . . put their pride on the line . . . and plunged full force for the grand-slam victory.

And they almost made it!

With strength and courage, they came within an inch away from the Marine League title of 1981!

First baseman Tim Lacey used quick reflex action to beat his opponent.

Lou Langie: as an exceptional player both offensively and defensively, he was Gardena's most celebrated shortstop.

With an entirely new squad, the Junior Varsity Baseball team strove for recognition.

The Rookies

With no returning players for the JV baseball team, Coach Warren faced the problem of filling all nine of the starting positions. Tenth graders John Matsubayashi, Darrin Minor, and Scot Yamatsuka provided some of the solutions. Valuable performances were turned in by inspirational clean-up batter Curtis Campbell and second baseman Eric Evans who once got five hits against Narbonne in one game.

Coach Warren commented, "Everybody on the team gives 100% every game and roots for their team members. There's excellent spirit. They will make a valuable contribution to the varsity next year," and hopefully the JV's will find replacements as good as these.

Brian Ogusuku was out for most of the season with a knee injury, but when he came back, he came back strong . . . batting .750 upon his return.*

Leading the pack was distance runner Samantha Schlegel, followed closely by teammate Elaine Herrera.

Just seconds away from breaking last year's record, Patti Jung qualified for the City quarter finals in the 800 m. dash with a time of 2.33.8.

Ready . . . steady . . . go!

Zoom!

This year's Girls' Track Team was sizable with 40 members, the majority of them 10th graders. Mr. William Sweatt headed the squad with assistance from Mr. Claudius Shropshire. At the beginning of their season, both coaches felt this young team was a sure contender for the league title.

Leading the speedsters were co-captains Lawanda Cabell and Becky Strong, both 11th graders. Coach Sweatt predicted Cabell would go on to the State Track Meet along with the mile relay team composed of Carla Dorsey, Angelique Green, Strong and Cabell.

It was obvious that the two coaches had much confidence in their girls this past season.

Coach Sweatt: "I feel that we will achieve our goals for the season and, with everyone working overtime, we could possibly achieve beyond our own expectations."

Coach Shropshire: "This year we will be formidable . . . next year we will be awesome!"

As Marine League Champ in the Varsity 100 m. and 200 m. dashes, Andre Wheeler was prime contender in the City finals.

Getting the best of both worlds*, senior Patrick McCray ran in League competitions on the Varsity level and in City meets on the BEE relay team.*

With strong self-discipline and individual talent, the Boys' Track team shifted into high gear for a fast paced season.

Burn Rubber

What? Run? Sweat rolling down your face, head pounding, muscles aching, gasping for breath? Why do runners TORTURE themselves this way?

". . . runners feel better, become thinner, probably live longer, . . . increase their self-esteem, be better able to cope with pressure . . . feel surges of joy . . ."
— James Fixx, auther of The Complete Book of Running

"Because I like to win." . . .
— Andre Wheeler, Varsity Track co-captain

Although Wheeler's reason was simple, it was enought to make him break the Marine League record in the 100-m with his fantastic 10.7 seconds. "It's hard work," he admitted, but his results are worth it!

"Although the Boy's Track Teams were small this year, we had some exceptional talent," enthused Coaches Mr. Doug Smith and Mr. Bob Daligney. Examples were Varsity runner Michael Billew, whose time of 49.1 in the 440 was "the best in the City," according to Smith; Varsity pole vaulter William Clemison, who reaches a height of thirteen feet; Bee hurdler and sprinter Kevin Williams; Cee sprinter Eric Dixon; Bee pole vaulter Joey Patton; and Varsity shot putters Merkle Williams and Evert Wade.

What's in store for next year? "We hope to have a bigger team, and to see all the potential talent we have now be developed," explained Smith. "For instance, Varsity runner Dennis Ross was only a sophomore this year! We're hoping for great things from him and many others."

Whatever reasons these guys have that make them excel, they must be good ones. Hey guys, what's your secret?

Timing was crucial for junior Ronnie Holsome as he sailed over the high hurdles.

Fulfilling his title of "Most Athletic," charismatic Co-Captain Medgar Parrish placed third in the Marine League 440 yd. dash and was a key member of the Varsity mile relay team.

For a quick lead, the Varsity team depended on Princeton Williams to run the first leg of the 440 relay.

Tenacious twosome . . . with determination and teamwork, junior Wendy Sone and partner Suzy Kakehashi advanced to the third round of city playoffs.

The Varsity Tennis Team came into full swing as they captured the Harbor League Championship

Racket Rapture

What was the key to success for the Girls' Varsity Tennis Team? Pride? Determination? Practice? Hmm, could be. But according to Coach Panovich . . . "We just had good players." And apparently he was right because Gardena snatched the Harbor League title for the second time in four years.

With the title in the bag, Gardena advanced to the city play-offs where they started with a 5-3 win over Carson. But the sweet smell of victory turned a little sour in the quarter-finals when Gardena fell to Grant by a score of 1-7. Grant, a strong team, placed second in the finals.

The second singles player, Regina Hodges, along with the first and second doubles teams of Debbie Funada/ Nadine Tokita and Jodi Ageno/Suzie Tanioka; made it to the second round of the city individual competition. Successfully making it to the third round were first singles player Angie Simon, and the doubles team of Suzy Kakehashi and Wendy Sone.

"We had a successful season," commented Coach Panovich. But that's evident from viewing the scoreboard. Next year all but three of the Varsity squad will return which will make the score . . . . . Advantage, Gardena!

What a smash! Two year veteran Angie Simon led the team to triumph.

The fast and feisty duo of Nadine Tokita and Debbie Funada was ranked as the first doubles team.

A devil of a pair, Walter Migdal and Elton Abe demolished every First Varsity Doubles team in the Marine League, and were recognized by the League for their merciless killings.

As an athlete, you work with a lot of coaches; once in a while you meet someone who's an exception.

Too Cool

The Boys' Tennis Team was once again a powerful contender in the Marine League. James Mito, a three year Varsity player, led and inspired the team. Not only were these men skilled at their game, but they were fortunate enough to be coached by the man of all sports. . . Ray Maggard.

"Cool Magg", as he is affectionately called, was quite an impressive athlete. As a track star at Lincoln High and again at UCLA, he achieved the honorary 1947 NCAA Pole Vault Championship. After conquering this amazing feat and graduating from college with a degree in PE, Magg came to GHS to coach track.

Being the all-around athlete he was, it wasn't long before he began coaching BEE Football, and finally tennis. This year marks his 31st year of coaching, — fifteen of which belong to tennis. During this span the tennis team has captured the Marine League title eight times out of the past ten years!

When asked what the secret was to his successful coaching, Magg humbly replied that it was simply the way he picked the team. Through a process of elimination — called ladder matches — the boys in a sense "picked themselves."

If this was true . . . if the method of team selection was the one factor leading to the team's consistent success . . . then it would hold true that anyone coaching the team would get the same results.

This, of course, isn't so.

Only a man like Magg would sell See's suckers in the locker room for five years in order to buy new sweats and equipment for the boys. Only Magg — with his keen wit — could lift his boys out of the blues after a losing match.

"I think," speculated JV player Paul Hamada, nicknamed "Hambone" by Magg, "they made Catt and him out of the same mold."

So who is Ray Maggard?

" . . . He's just a man who goes around bagging on students; saying "Hi cool" and with thumbs up, calling people names in Japanese. He's just a great coach, a great friend, but most of all . . . he's a great person."

Never a dull moment . . . Gene Taguchi's unconventional playing style and "Nastase" temper as 4th Varsity Singles drew attention to his game.

Bjorn Borg, Dwight Stone, O.J. Simpson . . . the Man of All Sports . . . Ray Maggard!

It was a quick recovery by Gordon Nakazono as he returned to the Varsity Second Singles position after a pinched knee injury early in the season.

With style and showmanship, Fabraye Fisher qualified for all four events in the city finals.

The Girls' Gymnastics team indulged in this sport of poise and grace.

Split Leaps . . . Sprained Ankles

"Body wave, chasse, scale . . ."

What do permanents, fancy French desserts, and weighing devices all have in common? The Girl's Gymnastics team all know that these are names for movements performed on the balance beam. Making difficult moves look easy and graceful on the beam — four feet off the ground and four inches wide — was one of the skills the girls worked hard to achieve.

In comparison to last year, the squad was smaller in number but had more experienced members. The girls competed on four levels: Class IV (beginning), III, II, and I (one step below Olympic level).

Senior Stacy Lauas, who led the team at the meets, competed in the Class I All-Around Division (beam, floor exercise, vault, and uneven parallel bars). Although she loved to joke and have fun, Stacy took her gymnastics very seriously and became a fierce competitor when performing her routines. "Stacy is an exceptionally talented gymnast who is definitely an inspiration to the team," explained coach Stephanie Isozaki, a Gardena High alumna.

Also adding much to the team's performances were captain Angie Ewing, well known for her soaring vaults; small but feisty Debbie Kawahara, who put all her spirit and power into her routines; and the graceful, elegant Fabraye Fisher.

Lynn Matsuda, usually a vital part of the team, was out for much of the season with a badly sprained ankle, resulting from a practice workout. Despite this and other setbacks such as illnesses, the girls never lost their balance. Like true gymnasts, though they sometimes took a licking, they kept on ticking!

Performing on the balance beam, La Rona "Wonky" Dixon leaped as gracefully as a gazelle.

As though it wasn't difficult enough to do on the ground . . . Debbie Okihara completed a back walkover on the beam.

Flair and Finesse

At the beginning of this year, lacking funds caused fear of losing many of our sports, one of them being Boys Gymnastics. But the S.O.S. (Save Our Sports) campaign came to the rescue, restoring not only Gymnastics, but others as well.

But alas! No sooner had that problem been resolved when another problem arose . . . finding a qualified coach willing to give his time and energy. They found the solution in Mr. Granados.

The absence of a 1980 team made this a year of rebuilding and experiencing for Coach Granados and his team. Although it was their first year of competition, they did their best and surprised many teams.

Seniors Irwin Barber and Ke Hwan Kim led the aspiring team with constant concentration and precise execution. With talented gymnasts like these, Coach Granados felt that "Gardena will soon be known for gymnastics".

"Although we are strong", stated Irwin Barber, "we will do our best to achieve recognition from other teams in the league." This year . . . recognition. Next year . . . the title!!!

Upsetting the Set-up

"You've got to be kidding!" was the Varsity Volleyball Team's instant reaction to the terrifying news. Two of their players called in with injuries that would put them away for the rest of the season.

For three weeks, blond haired Tiffini Hughes had a bad case of tendonitis causing her knee to collapse. Once recovered and ready to play, she injured two vital tools in volleyball play: her hand and her foot. Her hand, having been cut while washing dishes, could not be used in fear that the 6-8 stitches would break; and her foot, bitten by a dog, could not be laced into tennis shoes. Consequently she couldn't play.

On top of all of this, Julie Earley – star player of the team – developed a back injury early in the season. As a tough competitor in academics and popularity as well as volleyball, she continued to play another three weeks despite the sharp pains ripping intensely through her body. At last, through a series of tests, a slipped disc was discovered to be the root of the problem and Julie was confined to bed for a long time after . . . not knowing if she could ever play team ball again.

Where the volleyball team had victoriously spiked through the first round undefeated, the team was "disseminated" in the words of Coach Thorton to a third place ranking, but nevertheless qualified for the play-offs.

Fortunately, the JV's completed an injury free season, winding up in 4th place. It was a rollercoaster type of year but they managed to keep their energy-level up the whole time. Under Coach Harry Inouye, Janet Jackson and Cathy Nojima led the squad on the playing court.

Julie Earley: She was the backbone of the team's strength until she suffered a spinal injury, keeping her out of play.

CAST OF EXTRAS

Power Source

How many times have you felt like just another face in the crowd — an Extra? Maybe you weren't recognized as an individual, but together, as an organization, you stood as an essential part of school life. Just by your presence, you added variety and enthusiasm to the picture.

Imagine what it'd be like without you . . . no music at pep rallies, no International Foods Day, nobody to serve those mouth-watering lunches in the Moe Hut. Over 640 of your club jackets, sweaters, T-shirts, and uniforms brought the campus to life in vivid technicolor.

Seeing your spirit and enthusiasm made others sit-up and take notice. You dedicated your time to something you believed in and shared that feeling of pride . . . making others eager to get in on the action. In all, more than one-third of the student body was involved in a school organization.

Though you weren't written into the script, you each did your best to make the production something special. From the service clubs to language clubs, musical groups to recreational groups — this section is for you.

The Knights and Las Laureas are three years younger than Mickey Mouse . . . 49 years old! Established in 1932 as the first clubs on campus, the Knights and Las Laureas are not only noted as the top honor service organizations – requiring a 3.0 GPA for membership consideration – but are also designated as the official hosts and hostesses of Gardena High. Although the Knights and Las Laureas have projects together, they are actually two separate clubs.

Raising the flag to start another school day, working in the Moe Hut, parking cars, or ushering at assemblies – the Knights are always on the go.

The Las Laureas also have plenty to keep themselves busy, including: making mums for Homecoming, tutoring at the YMCA, or visiting their godmother, Orpha Poor, at the Alondra Nursing Home.

Together, the Knights and LL's sponsored Silver Bells, with this year's theme, "Winter Magic."

Continuously giving their advice and guidance were Sponsors Mr. Joel Okada and Mrs. Avalee Horn; with Commanders John Ohara and Eric Alimento; and Presidents Terri Little and Karyn Kuwahara.

Orange! Orange! Orange!

What used to be green with black skirts, but is now orange with Jordache jeans? Give up? It's the Coeds! You probably only know them as a group of orange sweaters serving at dances and football games, right? Actually, they started out in the 1940's as a group of girls in lime-green sweaters, white aprons, and black skirts assisting in the cafeteria. Not being too fond of their orginal color, they changed it to orange eight years ago.

Princes and Kings were first allowed to join in 1973. Now, these guys are accepted as regular members, making the club literally co-ed.

Striving to expand into the community as well as school, the Coeds increased their range of projects to include helping the disabled and tutoring young children. Presidents Audrey Hirayama, Susan Nishikawa, and Sponsor Ms. Jill Frost gave their full energy to the club.

Releasing the Homecoming balloons was just too exciting for Coeds Sharon Ikemiya and Kellie Asano.*

. . . KEY CLUB

Caring, Sharing . . . Daring

Dare to take a stand . . . to create change . . . to oppose . . . to affect others. Dare to Influence.

This theme presented the Gardena Key Club a new challenge and goal: to influence others through positive peer pressure. Incorporated in their campaign was the prevention of drug abuse, alcoholism, vandalism, and suicide. Students became aware of these problems and their possible solutions through the club's Special Editions of Smoke Signals and assemblies.

Key Clubbers also spent their energy on other areas such as their annual See-Saw-A-Thon, graffiti clean-ups, convalescent home visits, and the Second Annual Key Club Olympics. At the KCO, members shared the day with orphans and underprivileged children, giving them a chance to have fun while competing in field events.

Even though the club suffered the tragic loss of their sponsor, Mr. Gene Cattermole, they continued with their award-winning service under the guidance of Presidents Les Miyoshi and Gary Tanaka and their community sponsor, The Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club.

A New Year's celebration without mochi (rice cakes) is bad luck. Izumi Tamura, Sam Yoshimura, and Gary Tanaka pounded rice for senior citizens at the JCI.

Chasing Rainbows

Giving our time, giving our love, giving ourselves . . .

In 1965, an all-male group of volunteers supervised a parking lot. Impressed by the dedication of the group, Principal Jerry Horowitz commented, "They stood like Squires." Thus, Squires was born.

Today, any student with a 2.8 or better GPA and a desire to serve the school and community is eligible for membership and welcome to try out for the club. Under presidents Vivian De La Rosa and Fred Nader, Squires had a very busy year. Two of their major projects were sponsoring the Sadie Hawkins Dance and working with the handicapped.

Members, Linda Nakamura and Joanne Morimoto, summed-up their feelings by saying, "Squires are a second family. They laugh with you, and they cry with you."

Did Rotary International really want to get involved with a bunch of high school teenagers? Apparently, the answer was yes. Interact's first club charter was formed with the help of Rotary eighteen years ago in Melbourne, Florida. Since then, their membership has spread to nearly seventy countries and 3,000 clubs.

The Gardena Interact Club, the youngest of the service organizations, has been on campus for only six years. Although their stay has not been long, they have made a reputation for themselves as being one of the hardest working chapters in the district. At last year's conference, the Gardena Interact won awards in five different categories and placed second in the district. With the leadership capabilities of advisor Mike Sakurai, and Presidents Stephanie Sato and Stan Masaoka, Interact continued to fulfill their motto, "Service above Self."

The Agony of De-feet

Spas, racquetball, Nautilus weights, Trailblazers: what do these things have in common? All are popular methods of keeping fit — the "in" thing of the 80's. But only Trailblazers give you this asset . . . and more.

The Trailblazers took-in sunshine, exercise, and the natural beauty of the outdoors. In addition, they took advantage of the clean and refreshing mountain air — escaping the musty L.A. smog — something a health spa could never provide.

Nevertheless, every brook has its boulders. The novice sometimes suffered from physical fatigue and bulging blisters. To alleviate the pain, various measures of relaxation were taken. Some sought to satisfy a growling stomach by fishing in a cool stream, while others followed their pioneer instincts and panned for gold.

The Greatest Snow on Earth

990 miles . . . riding in a bus from the sunny temperatures of Southern California to the biting cold of Utah . . . was it worth it? For 33 students of Gardena High it sure was! On December 27, at 7:00 a.m., Ski Club began their 16 hour excursion to Utah. For the price of $209 members attained bus fare, a hotel room, lift tickets, and ski rental at discount prices.

During their four-day stay at Alta and Snowbird resorts, the skiers made memorable friendships with students from high schools all over the South Bay Area.

Mrs. Porter, their sponsor, commented that Ski Club enables students to ski at places they may never have been able to go to because of lack of transportation or money.

We Whip It Good!

To some, mentioning "NFL" might remind them of Monday Night Football. But at Gardena High, NFL means only one thing . . . National Forensics League. NFL is an honorary organization dedicated to self-expression and speech excellence.

Like football, Forensics require a team effort. Each individual is essential to the whole group because points are awarded to the school based on how well each speaker performs. Competing is always fun, but the final moments of the day are the most eagerly awaited . . . the awards ceremony. Anticipation and nervous excitement capture the auditorium as trophies are awarded and the first place school is announced. Many speakers come home without a certificate or trophy, but winning isn't important — it's how you play the game.

. . . LATIN

Numerus Unus

Toga! Toga! Toga! Gardena High's annual toga party – alias the Latin Club Banquet – resembled a celebration from both the past and the present.

For one night, the Social Hall went back 2000 years in time. Young men and women from different schools paraded around in garments which closely resembled the modern-day tablecloth and bed sheet. Before the meal was served, an ancient ritual was performed in which a fuzzy yellow stuffed bird was sacrificed to the gods. Slaves served their masters by fulfilling commands and hand-feeding them fruits.

In between acts in a play performed by GHS Latin students, secret notes were passed around, especially to members of the opposite sex. Last on the program was a short dance where note-passers met their pen pals. How romantic!

Well, you know what they say about Latin lovers . . .

The Japans! Working, playing, day or night, Japanese Club has the look that's right! All year-round, club members were busy making arrangements for the Yoshida High School exchange students' momentous visit in the spring. This year, the club reached its fundraising goal by selling 1,380 cans of P-Nuttles; the proceeds used to finance activities for the Yoshida students.

Two months before the guests arrived, the club members broke-up into seven committees: publicity, welcome, special classes, school hosts, activities, banquet, and scrapbook. With designated chairpersons, the committees met to carry-out their assignments.

Sponsor Mr. Marvin Follett awarded grade-boosting extra credit points to each member contributing to the success of the program.

Signs of the Times

In the Spring of '71, five deaf students performed as our first Sign Language Choir. Since then, the group has developed into an instructional club, composed mainly of hearing students. Under the supervision and instruction of Mrs. Diane Spence and volunteer Jan Hagan, the club learned to "say" various words and phrases to break the communication barrier between deaf and hearing students.

. . . KOREAN CULTURE CLUB

Forming Friendships

Korean Culture Club had many projects, including ice skating, tutoring, and visits to the Alondra Nursing Home. Heimi Shim, member of KCC, explained, "It's nice to meet friends from our own country. Most Korean students here at Gardena were raised back in our home country . . . our views about the U.S. are different . . . Participating in KCC brings us closer together."

. . . THESPIANS

Break a Leg!

Long ago, around the sixth century B.C., lived a man by the name of Thespis. Thespis was a Greek poet, but later created a new profession by becoming the world's very first actor. He is also said to be the inventor of the tragedy: a serious play with an unhappy ending.

Today, an honor society has been established on campus in Thespis' name. Thespians, meaning actors, is an international organization formed for serious drama students and technicians. Actors and actresses may gain membership by earning a certain amount of points through participation in drama activities.

Some of their projects included Perform-a-thons, drama festivals, and visiting various television studios. Thespians was led under the watchful eyes of Sponsor Ken Anderson.

. . . TOUR GROUP

"No-ka-oi"

What did you do over Easter Vacation? Like the Tour Group, you may have gone shopping, to the beach, and maybe even to exotic restaurants. While you probably stayed in California, however, the Tour Group enjoyed the magic of the paradise islands . . . HAWAII!!!

Through a well organized itinerary, choral members had a chance to entertain, as well as to be entertained. Rehearsal was held a day after their arrival — followed within 24 hours by the World of Music Festival. Despite the stiff competition, the choral group emerged with a Superiority trophy, with Jeffrey Pearson taking an individual scholarship for his vocal talents.

For the remaining five days, the Tour Group absorbed the tropical atmosphere of the islands. Their daytime adventures included the Pearl Harbor and Circle Island Tours. Besides learning about the Hawaiian culture, they had a chance to meet new friends and to grow closer to one another.

Prior to the trip, the group raised the incredible sum of $25,000. It was through the inspiration of Choir teacher, Mrs. Laura Young, and the energy of both students and their parents, that this expedition was made possible.

. . . CHOIR/CHAMBER SINGERS

Standing Proud, Singing Loud

If you were ever prisoned in A3 for being tardy, and wondered who was responsible for the harmonious voices echoing through the room . . . read on.

One hundred five of the most gifted singers in the school — the Choir and Chamber Singers — congregated daily in A4. Altos, sopranos, tenors, and basses rehearsed to the peak of perfection for their numerous performances. Their presentations ranged from the formal air of their annual Christmas program to the casual atmosphere of the Kiwanis Luncheon.

The Choir and Chamber Singers not only moved audiences through their music, but through their actions as well: they performed impressive gospel tunes like "Never Alone," and even danced in the aisles with senior citizens.

The next time you're in A3 and hear mysterious voices from next-door, you'll have no doubt that it's Sponsor Mrs. Laura Young and her clarion choral clan!

. . . HOSPITAL OCCUPATIONS

What's up, Doc?

Hail to our future doctors and nurses! Hospital Occupations members commute daily to Gardena Memorial Hospital where they serve as nurse's aides – making beds, taking vital signs, and learning to use various medical equipment. Upon graduation, each student receives a certificate allowing him to work as a hospital assistant. For many, this experience is an on-ramp to the highway of a future career.

. . . FFA

Green Acres

Interested in plants? Maybe cows? How about pigs? Future Farmers of America is an agricultural organization whose members raise produce and livestock for a profit. President Brenda Pack bought a lamb for $45. For six months she worked with the animal everyday, so that in time, she could sell her animal for a net profit of $60 . . . just $2.50 per week. That's dedication!

Uncle Sil's Army

Going through changes . . . striving for new goals.
A change of pace . . .

This spring, the Latin American Students Association renewed their club philosophy. One of their new goals was incorporating a program with the ESL students, to familiarize incoming Latin American students with their new surroundings at GHS. In addition, they planned to serve the school in any way possible.

. . . M.E.S.A.

New Horizons

M-E-S-A . . . Mathematics, Engineering, and Science Achievement completed its second year on GHS's campus. UCLA and USC, sponsors of MESA programs, enabled members to experience "college life" for six weeks last summer. The club's main objective was to encourage minority students, specifically Blacks and Hispanics, to consider a career requiring accelerated courses in math and science.

President of MESA*, Curtis Lipkins, greeted his guest speaker with a cordial introduction.*

. . . and the beat goes on

The Big Bad Green Machine was as powerful as ever! Dancing around on the field, they energized the crowd at football games with their popular selection, "Whip It." Choir teacher, Mrs. Laura Young, and English teacher, Mr. Lorenzo Johnson, directed the class, and for the first time, two young ladies acted as Drum Majors.

Band members had to be musically inclined. Some who had started out on the trumpet found themselves just as efficient on the sax. Because their audience demanded a variety of music, musicians and majorettes alike had to memorize routines in just four days.

The new year brought more exciting challenges to the Green Machine. Marching to the beat, they entertained crowds at several parades, including the Carson Anniversary Parade and the Gardena Loyalty Day parade.

All Temperature Cheers

"You don't want none hey!" That was the famous chant of the Gardena High drill team as they "pow-wowed" around the football field. It took a lot of dedication from each girl to go to every football game and give her all despite the bitter cold or intense heat . . . or Friday night sacrifices. But a former drill team member exclaimed, "It was fun. I felt the support of the school behind me and it gave me that extra oomph!"

Drill team's action began as soon as the half-time whistle blew. They marched on the field, spirit and all, and did their thing! Unfortunately, there wasn't a drill team in the second semester, but with all the esprit they spread around, the pep still lingers on . . .

The Tribe is Live!

Have you been bored, tired, and spiritless? Would you like to have fun, excitement, and get involved with the school? If you answered "yes" to both of those questions, the Mohican Get-It-Together Club may be the solution.

Rejuvenated from three years back, their name had been changed from the original International Club to the Motown Get-It-Together Club, and finally, to the Mohican Get-It-Together Club. They organized many projects, including rollerskating, movies, bake sales, and an outing to the haunted house at the Cerritos Mall.

As far as membership, there is no worrying about grade requirements. Enthusiasm is all that's needed. One of their chief motives was to try to expand the club, eventually branching out into community service. Striving to achieve this goal, they held weekly meetings and really "got it together!"

. . . ATHENIANS

Going for the "Gold"

3.5! That's the magic number (G.P.A.) required to be an Athenian. By being in CSF for four or more semesters, students achieve the honorary title of Gold Seal Bearer. Members benefit by gaining information about colleges through visits to various campuses and by listening to guest speakers. At the Spring banquet, "Athenian of the Year" scholarships are awarded to outstanding graduating seniors.

. . . COMPUTER

Mechanical Minds

Input, output, print . . . error! It's all part of the frustrations and challenges of Computer Club. Originally formed to give students a chance to learn computer language, Computer Club provided members with a room and machines to put their knowledge to practice. Through this experience, many students have and will become interested in computer programming as a career. After all, it is the field of the 80's!

Creative Circles

. . . ART HONOR SOCIETY

Two years ago, an elite group of artists united to form the National Art Honor Society. Their goal: to encourage gifted students to pursue art as a career. Motivation was stimulated when the Society hosted in the art gallery and Area 1 Art Shows, participated in art career seminars, and visited museums. Members were eligible for scholarships established by the National Committee and several other organizations.

. . . ART PRODUCTION

Whenever the school needed a program cover designed, there was one group they could always count on . . . Art Production. As a school service club, Art Production took charge of the showcases, signs, banners, posters, programs and decorations. In addition, they painted the walls of the gallery.

Get the Scoop!

At least once a month, there was a mad rush to D5 as the new edition of Smoke Signals was released — hot off the press! Students and faculty indulged in the latest word on sports, fashion, public opinion, and entertainment as covered by student reporters.

Though graced with only a small staff of people and their advisor, Mr. Sil Ledesma, the Smoke Signals staff kept "puffing away." The process of writing the articles, planning dummies, and pasting up the finished pages generally took two weeks to complete.

But the Smoke Signals wasn't all work and no play. Last summer, Steffanie Fedunak (Feature Editor) and Suzanne Arakawa (Editor-in-Chief) went to a journalism workshop at USC, where they were privileged to contribute to the Summer Trojan. Later, the staff attended a two-day journalism convention held at the Hyatt Regency.

Like reporters from any major newspaper, attending press screenings such as Flash Gordon, The Runaways, and The Formula enhanced the agenda for the busy staff members.

United We Stand

Interclub Council was a prime example of togetherness, love, and dedication.

Every club had the option of having a representative in the Interclub Council. Those who participated met under Commissioners Mike Enomoto and Tony Filippone to resolve conflicts and to plan interclub projects.

Interclub projects were a unifying force in club relationships. They enabled members to get acquainted and to show-off their club spirit. Among these activities were Know-A-Club Week, International Foods Day, and Christmas Caroling. During the November and March Know-A-Club Weeks, many clubs publicized their groups to encourage membership. On International Foods Day, clubs provided the manpower and merchandise for this ASB fundraiser. Unlike other projects, interclub Christmas Caroling was a special kind of event, because the clubs worked together . . . not in competition.

. . . YEARBOOK

The Producers

Yearbook, contrary to popular belief, was a class which demanded both hard work and patience from its staff. In the early months, the staff sold advertisements to local businesses. This year, class members sold a record high of 390 ads — over $15,000 worth!

The yearbook class was always busy, but the last few weeks prior to deadline were especially hectic. During this time, staff members reached the peak of production as the pages gradually began to take form. They were known to put in lunch hours, weekends, and even Easter vacation, facing the challenges and responsibilities that come with the Yearbook experience.

This El Arador was dedicated to the late Gene Cattermole, Yearbook Advisor for over two decades. His death came suddenly and unexpectedly — an emotional blow to the class. Under the guidance of their new advisor, Mrs. Cathy Newman, and Editor Janette Umemoto, the class strove to create a book that Mr. Cattermole would be proud of. Catt's memory gave many members of the staff the drive and inspiration to give their all . . . to make this year's book the best ever.

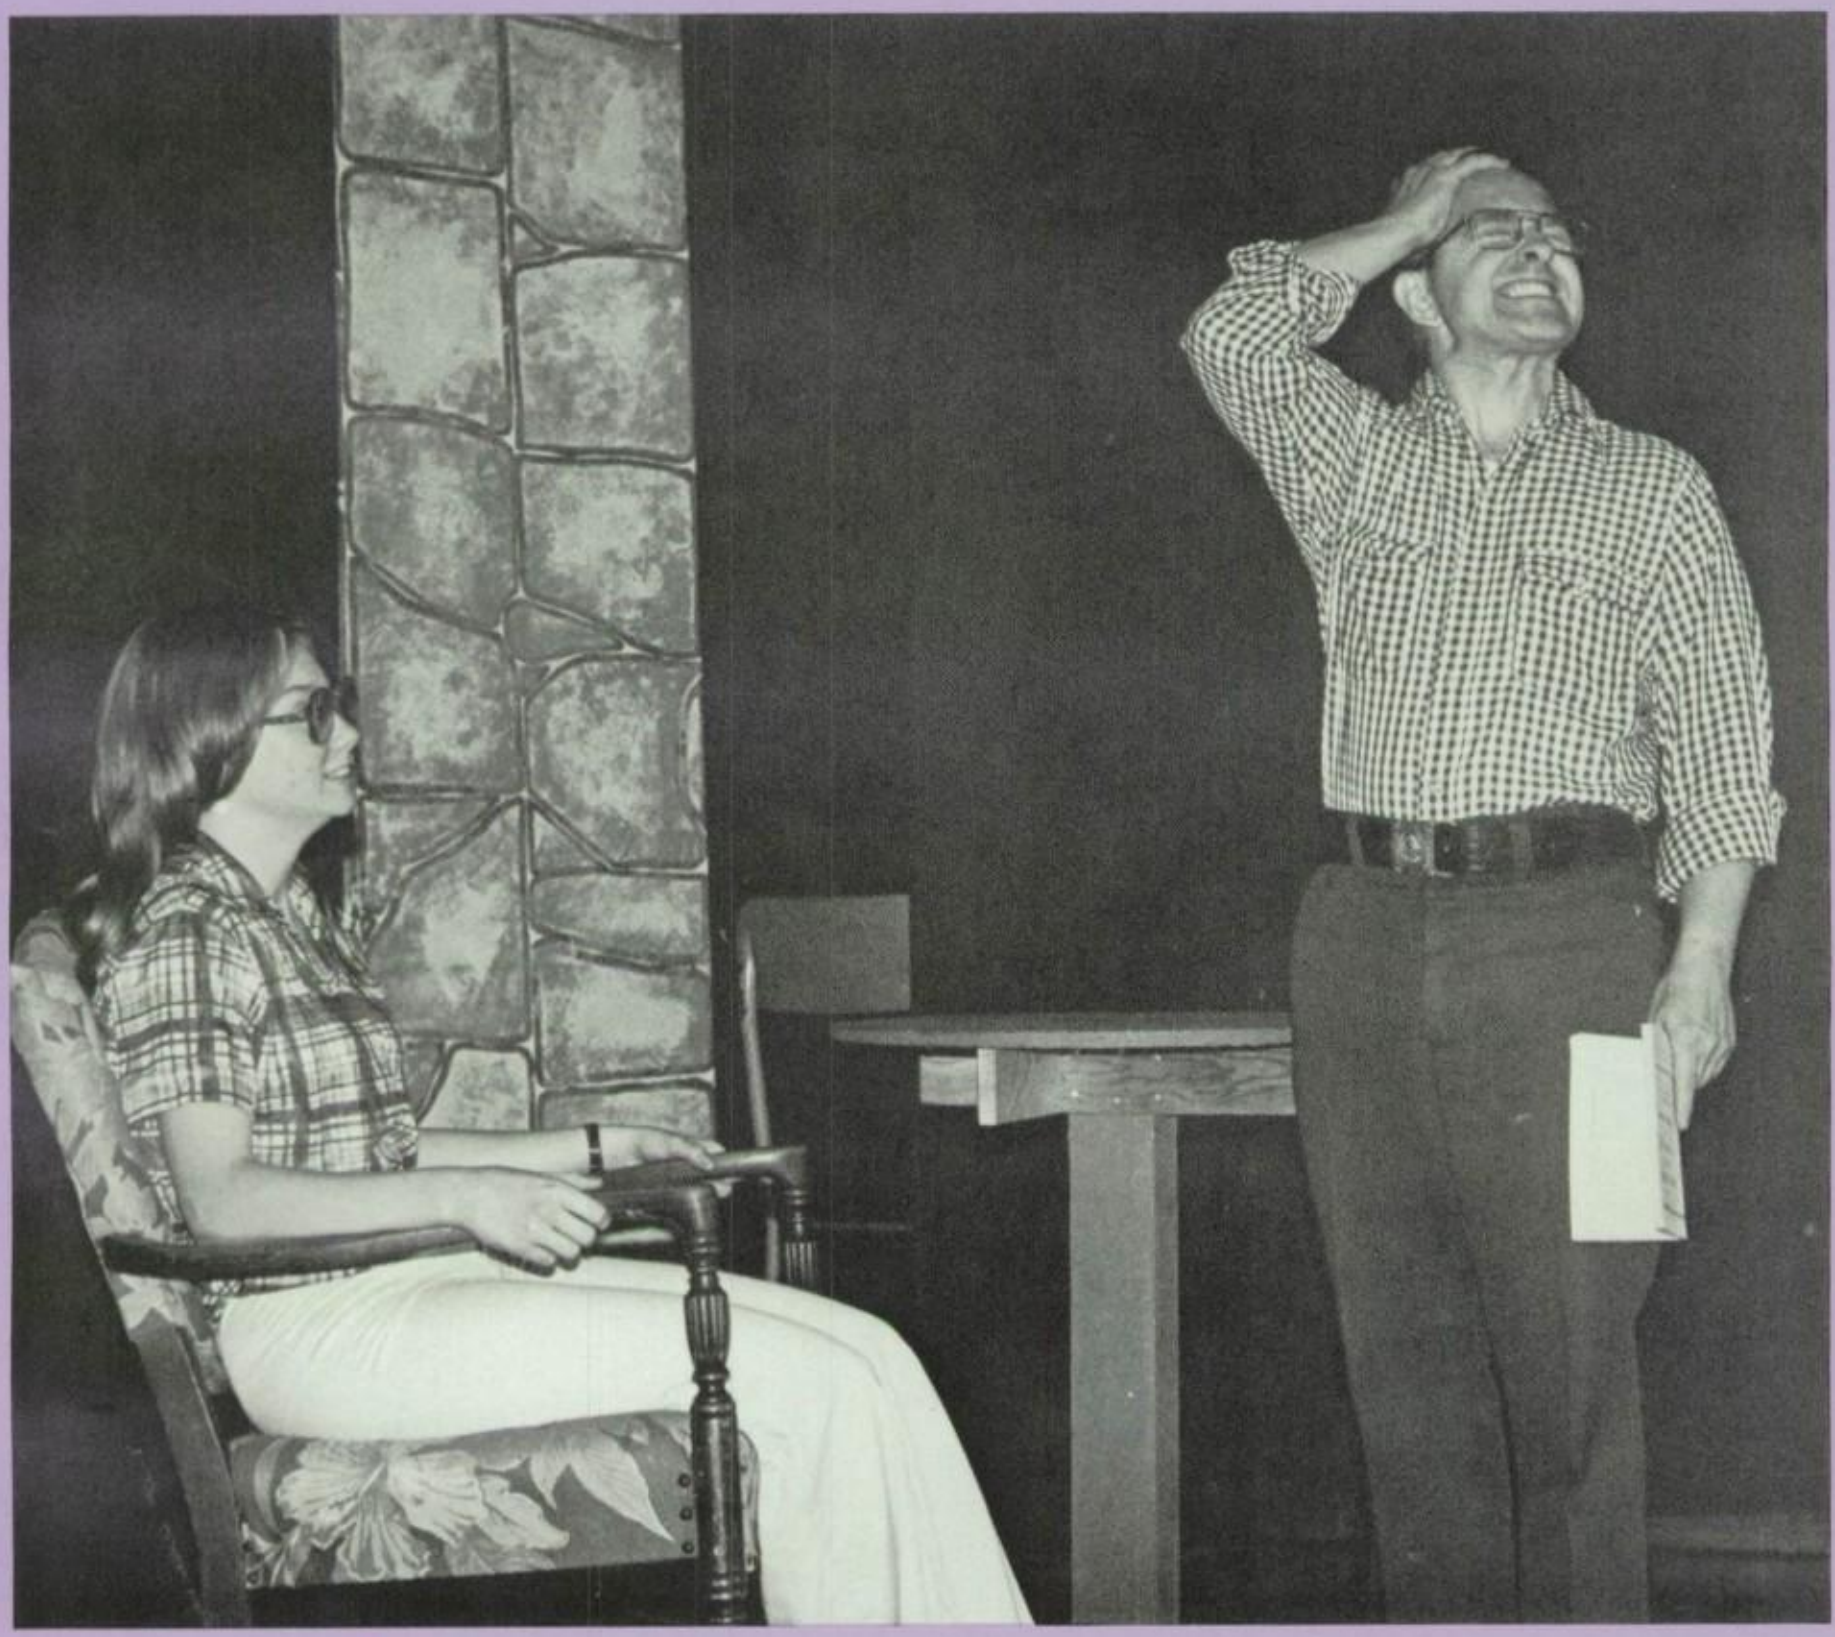
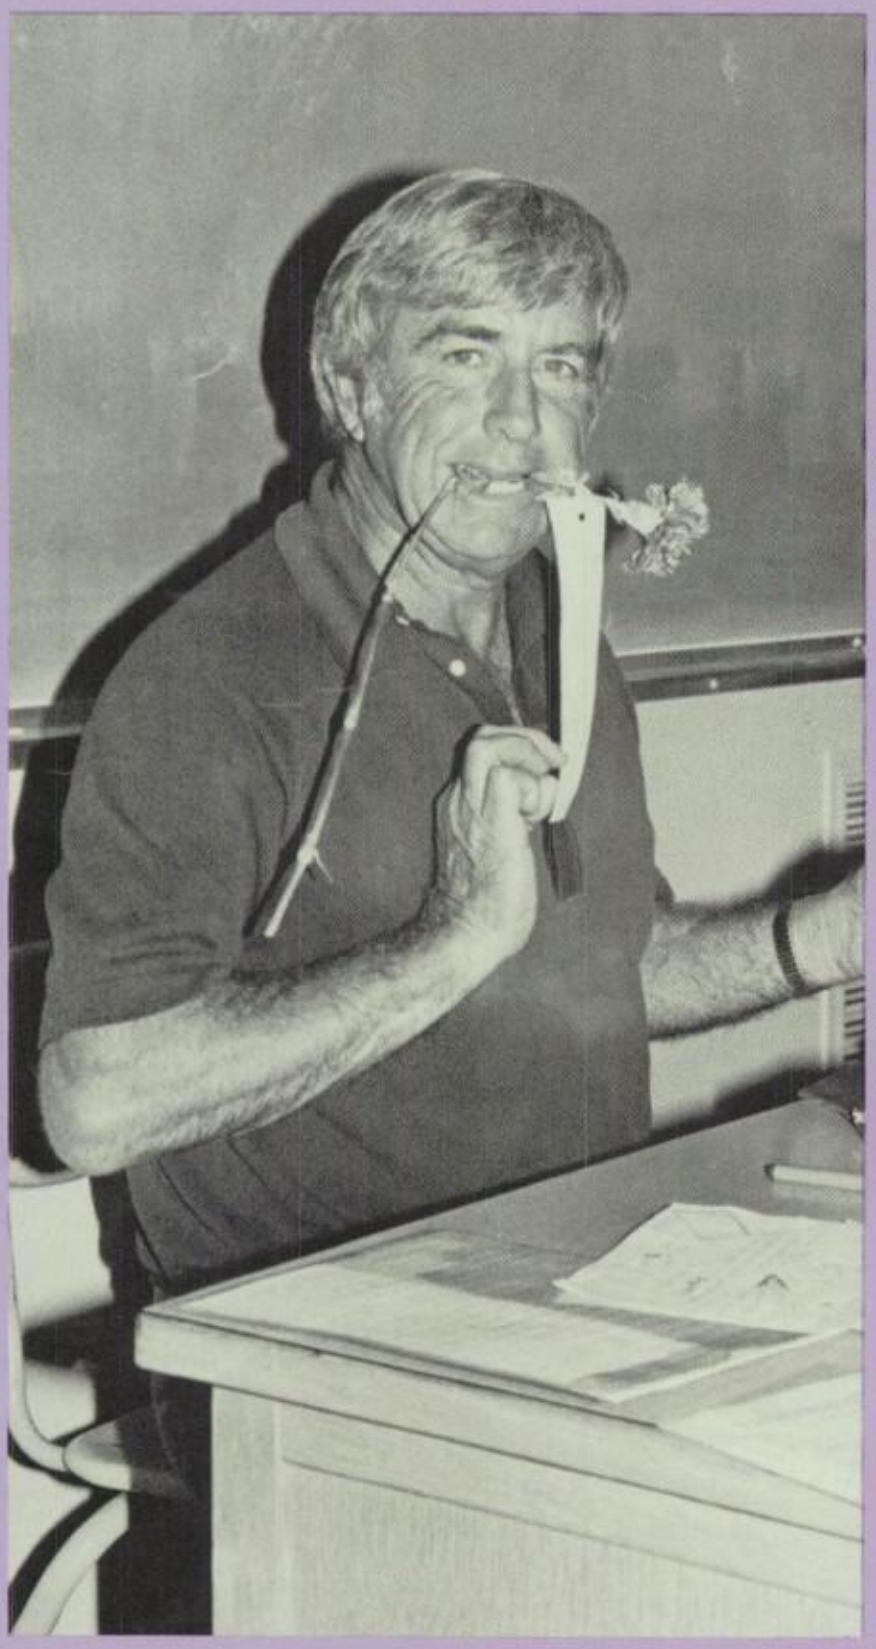
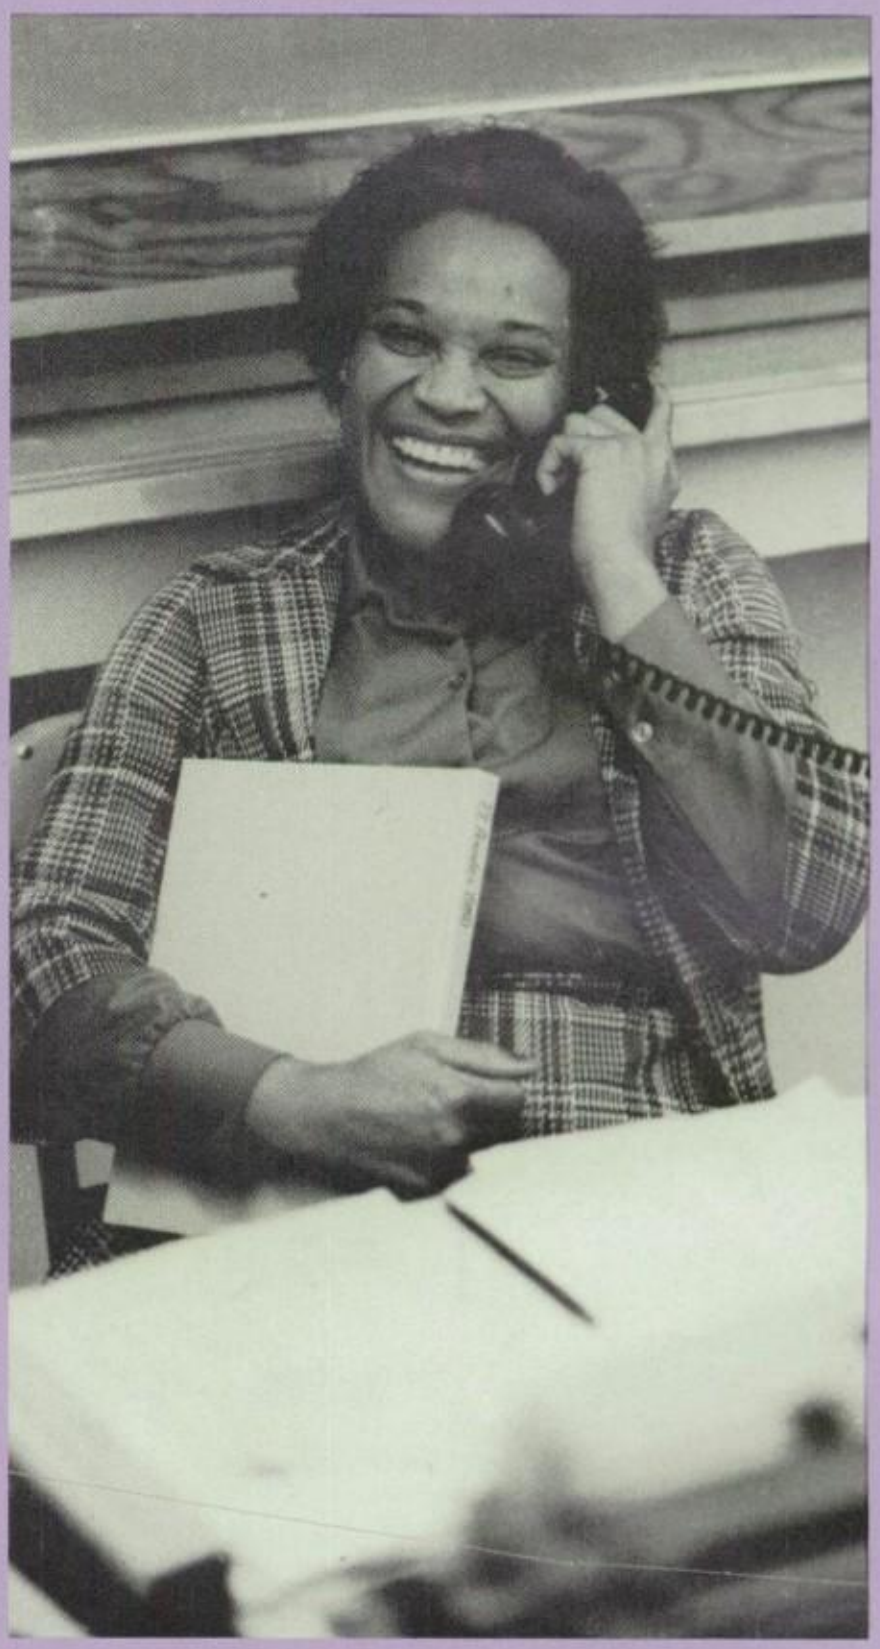
THE DIRECTORS







TRIBUTE

The director is the sculptor, the actor his clay. Just as the director molds the performer's character, our teachers help shape our personality.

When we first arrived on the set, we were told what to expect, and what was to be expected of us. We rehearsed scripts, analyzed plays, and held performances — all under our teachers' guidance — to prepare us for our future roles.

It's not going to be easy saying good-bye to this school, to our directors and friends. We have so much more to learn about ourselves, about the world.

No matter what lies ahead, the things we've learned and the roles we've played will always be a special part of our lives.

. . . and we would like to express our special thanks to the Directors.

NO EXCUSES!

NEW SICK LEAVE POLICY

SICKNESS: No excuse. We will no longer accept your doctor's statement as proof, as we believe that if you are able to go to the doctor, you are able to come to work.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE (For an Operation): We are no longer allowing this practice. We wish to discourage any thought that you may have about needing an operation. We believe that as long as you are employed here, you will need all of whatever you have and should not consider having anything removed. We hired you as you are and to have anything removed would certainly make you less than we bargained for.

Too much time is being spent in the Rest Room. In the future, we will follow the practice of going to the Rest Room in alphabetical order. For instance, those whose names begin with 'A' will go from 8 a.m. to 8:05 a.m., 'B' will go from 8:05 to 8:10 a.m., and so on. If you are unable to go at your time, it will be necessary to wait until the day when your turn comes again.

DEATH (Other Than Your Own): This is no excuse. There is nothing you can do for them, and we are sure that someone else in a lesser position can attend to the arrangements. However, if the funeral can be held in late afternoon, we will be glad to let you off one hour early, provided that your share of work is ahead enough to keep the job going in your absence.

DEATH (Your Own): This will be accepted as an excuse, but we would like a two-week notice, as we feel it is your duty to teach someone else your job.

WORK EXPERIENCE (1942)

Function: To allow students working in acceptable job situations earn credit to complete their high school education.

DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING (1951)

Function: To provide an opportunity for the hearing impaired students integrate as much as possible into the academic classes and social activities of the regular high school campus.

REGIONAL OCCUPATIONAL PROGRAMS (1970)

Function: To provide senior students with vocational and technical training at various sites which will lead to immediate full time or part time employment.

LAU/ESL/BILINGUAL (1978)

Function: To teach immigrant students how to understand, speak, read, and write English well enough to participate in regular classes at Gardena High School.

WK. EXP.

"Students enrolled in our course have gained valuable experience adjusting to the adult world of work before graduation. They have had the opportunity of earning money for their own expenses and can tell a future employer they have had "paid working experience." Sometimes the one factor keeping a student from becoming a drop out is the fact that Work Experience is available to help earn credit toward a diploma."

ROP

"ROP is called the Invisible School because the training programs are offered in a variety of sites throughout the 710 sq. miles of the L.A.U.S.D. plus surrounding areas. These sites range from banks, hotels, hospitals, department stores, insurance companies, and small businesses, to large industrial corporations and upgraded high school facilities. ROP offers job training classes during the day, late afternoon, and on Saturdays."

DHH

*"Our uniqueness is found in the methods we use to teach our students. Among the methods used is total communication: a mode of communication involving lip-reading and sign language. One of the most important functions of the DHH Program is providing the hearing impaired student with professional people who really do care."

ESL

"The students are taught English, given orientation to G.H.S. and to this country in general, given guidance in the selection of classes, prepared to mainstream in the regular curriculum, and helped with the three proficiency exams: SHARP, WRITE, and TOPICS.

Ultimately, however, the program has goals beyond the high school experience. It is designed to assist its foreign students in assuming meaningful roles in our American Society after high school is over.

What makes the program especially strong is that it has three strong and caring teachers Miss Maeda, Mr. Detwiler, and Mrs. Amato. We also enjoy the support of G.H.S. administration. We are currently working on more parent participation."

"Did you see the Humanities production? It was sensational! Everyone had so much fun. How in the world do I get into Humanities?"

Yes, it was "Humanities Fever" all right. Shortly after "Deadwood Days" presented itself on the Gardena High School campus, mobs of juniors longed to become a part of all the excitement. Signing up for this mystery class, most were neither aware nor worried of future consequences. Once in the hands of Cook and Paddor they would be mentally cultivated and cultured in the fields of art, music, anthropology, dance, and theatre. More importantly they would be able to better understand themselves and discover their own personal abilities.

In the course of this past year, students were introduced to many new concepts and ideas that often seemed weird before interesting. It was a time for stretching . . . growing . . . and opening their minds to other types of music besides rock, other styles of dance besides disco, and other methods of communication besides talking. A trip to the L.A. County Art Museum allowed each student to determine his favorite piece whether it be the beautiful portraits of Rembrandt or the eccentrically exciting figurines of Picasso.

Mere analysis of famous work, however, wasn't enough for the Humanities class. Both Cook and Paddor knew that for their students to develop a true appreciation for the arts, they would have to actually participate in them. It was the four weeks of Paddor's free ballet class prior to the opening night of "La Bayadere" that enabled the American Ballet Theater Company to totally "blow the class away!"

Whether each student discovered he liked Picasso better than Rembrandt, goongoo beans better than kim-chee, or Greek history better than the Wild West the "Humanities Experience" was a rewarding one for all. It helped them to tear down the walls that prohibit growth in so many children of today's generation. It helped them to gain confidence in themselves and to make them altogether more well-rounded, interesting individuals.

As one student expressed, "The 'Humanities Experience' has spurred my interests and opened new doors — a whole new dimension that I would never have ventured on my own."

Hilton Hayes swayed poor Little Nell into distrusting her manly hero, Jack Logan. (Robert Miyata, Mary Nakazono)

With hundreds of ranchers, bullwhackers, Indians, and miners in town, Luscious Lucy and Wingless Angel wasted no time picking up eager customers. (Lori Hirota, Michelle St. Clair)

The Women's Christian Temperance Union Choir led by Annie Wittenmyer sang the National Anthem during the opening of William Braun's play, "He Ain't Done Right by Nell."

After an exhausting day of women-chasing and out-and-out hostility, Potato Creek Johnny guzzled down the booze. (Mark Claiborne)

"RING RING"

GIRL: Hello?

BOY: Hi! Are you going to the football game?
GIRL: Yeah . . . we're gonna cream 'em tonight!

BOY: Yeah, it's gonna be fun! High school sure is a lot better than junior high ever was.
GIRL: For sure! There's so many different things to do and a lot more freedom.

BOY: I know! We can eat lunch anywhere we want; not like last year when we had to stay in the lunch area until the bell rang.
GIRL: Really! Or when we had to follow that dumb dress code! Now I can wear shorts and slippers and heels and . . .

BOY: Oh brother! All you girls act like school's a fashion show or something. I can't believe . . .
GIRL: Oh be quiet. I have better things to do than listen to you!

Dear Diary,

Today the seniors were a real pain, more than usual. With the Prom coming up, that's all they talk about! The sophomores are STILL getting lost. Just today, one reached up and tapped me on the knees and asked, "Where's the bathroom?" Many they are dingy! But it's sure fun getting out of school at two o'clock knowing they have to stay for another class! The test in M.A. wasn't too bad — but I fell asleep in history class again. I better watch it. One of these days I'm gonna get caught. Oh yeah — I saw Tony Filippone three times today, and he even said "HI" to me!! just about died . . . He's soooo cute!!! I wonder what he wants for his birthday. I've only 123 days to find out . . .

Well, I guess it's time to hit the books. No matter what, I've got to do good on tomorrow's chem. test — even if it means staying up ALL night. Oh, wait a minute — todays' Thursday! Oh man, I've gotta go. I've missed half of "Magnum P.I. already!!

Until tomorrow . . .

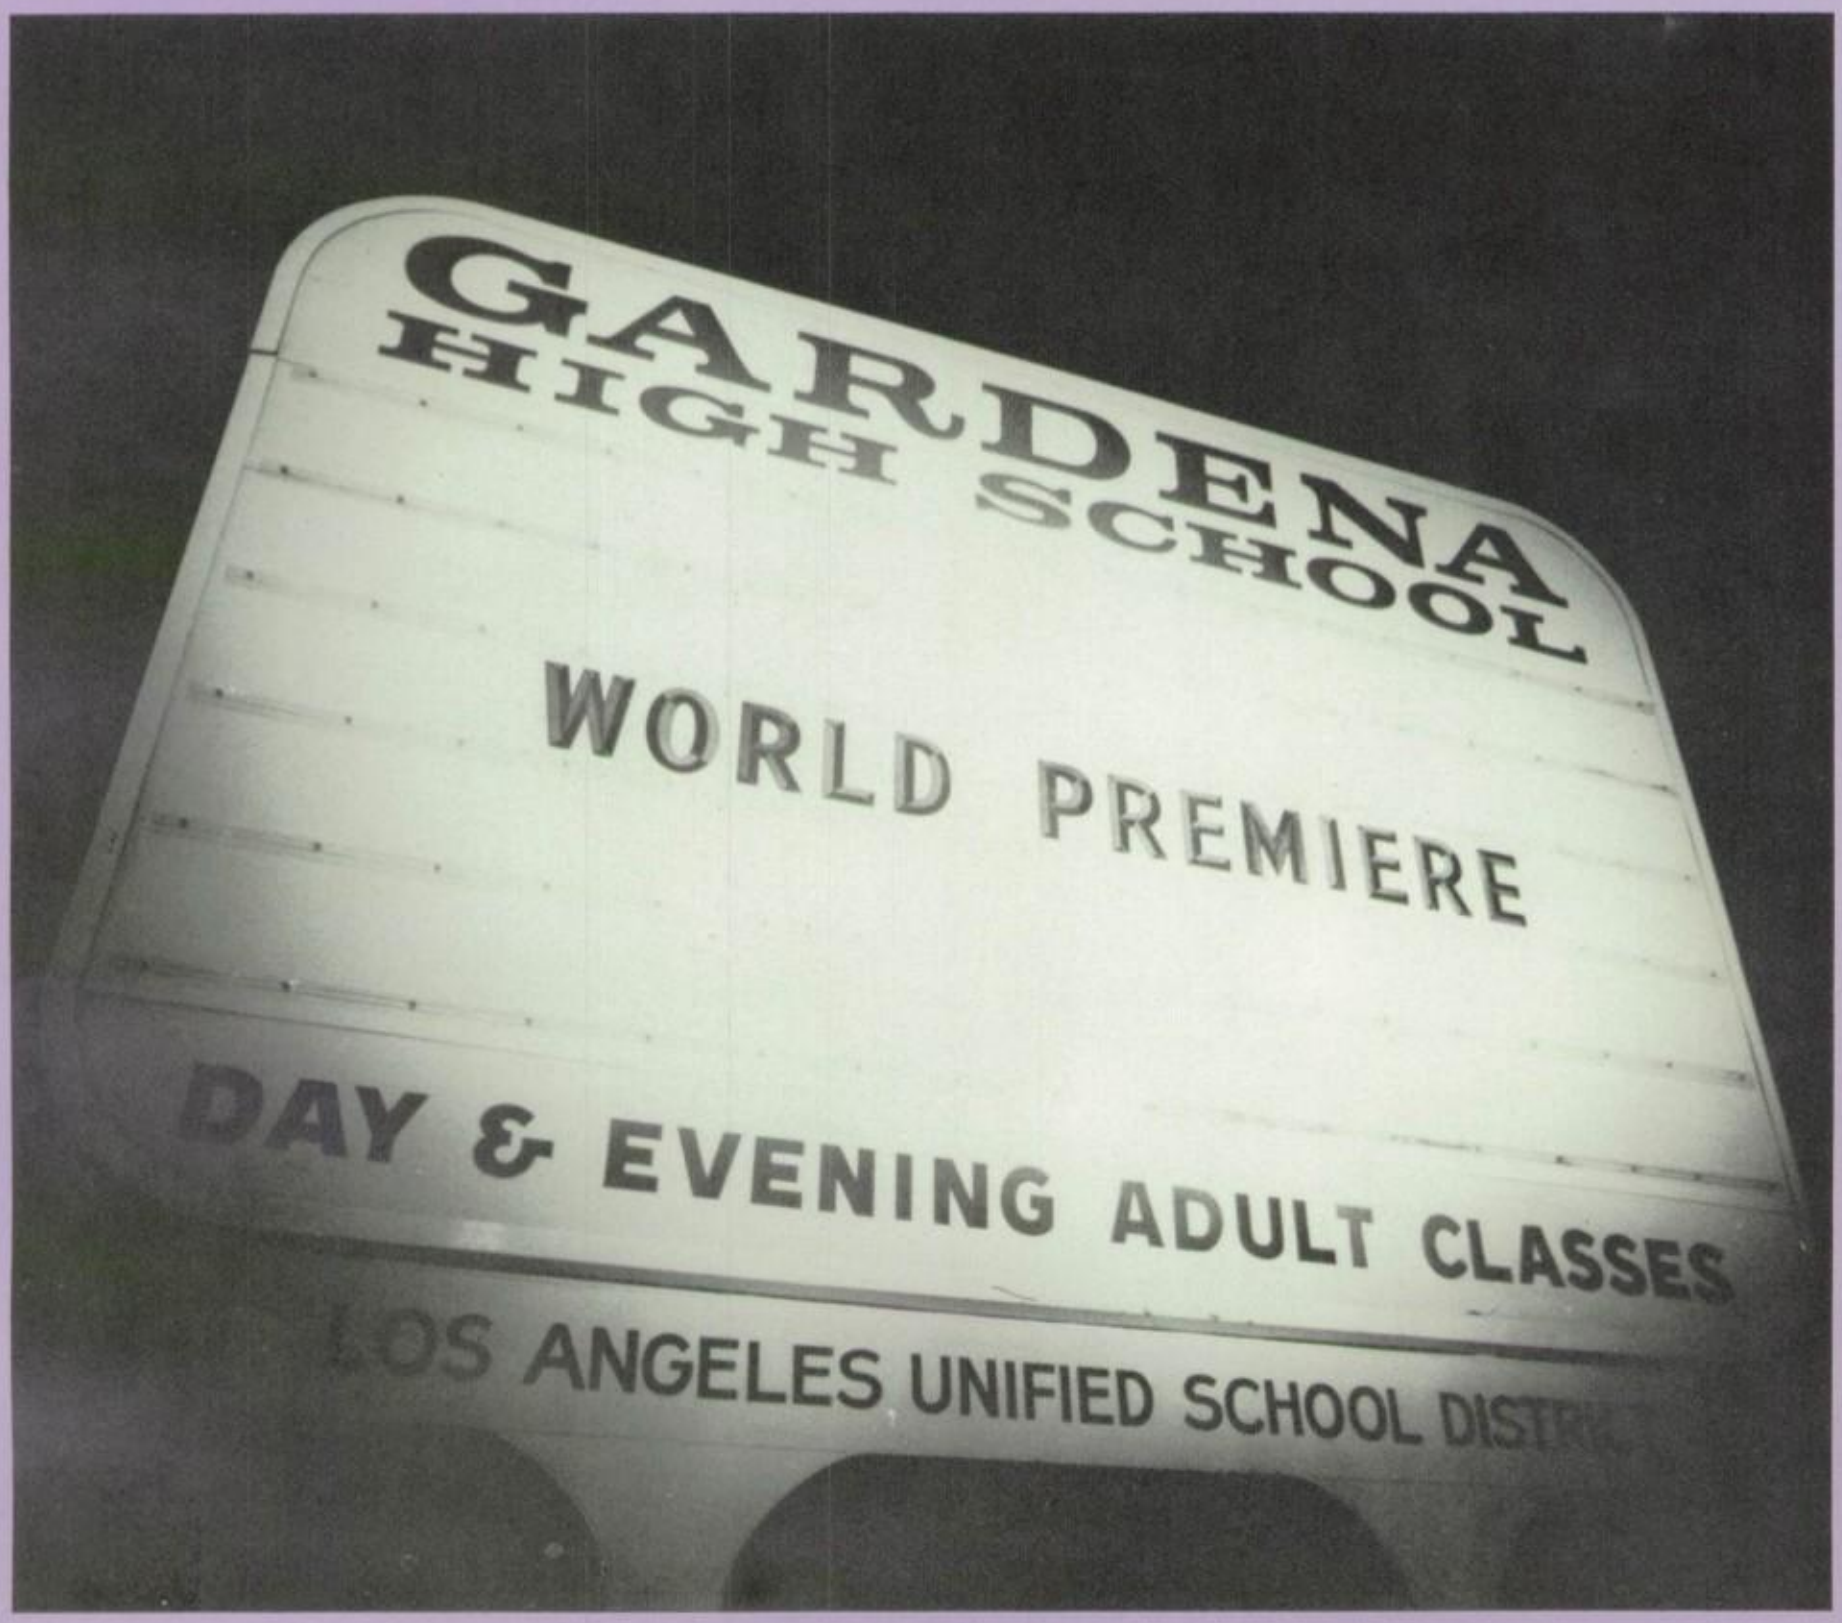
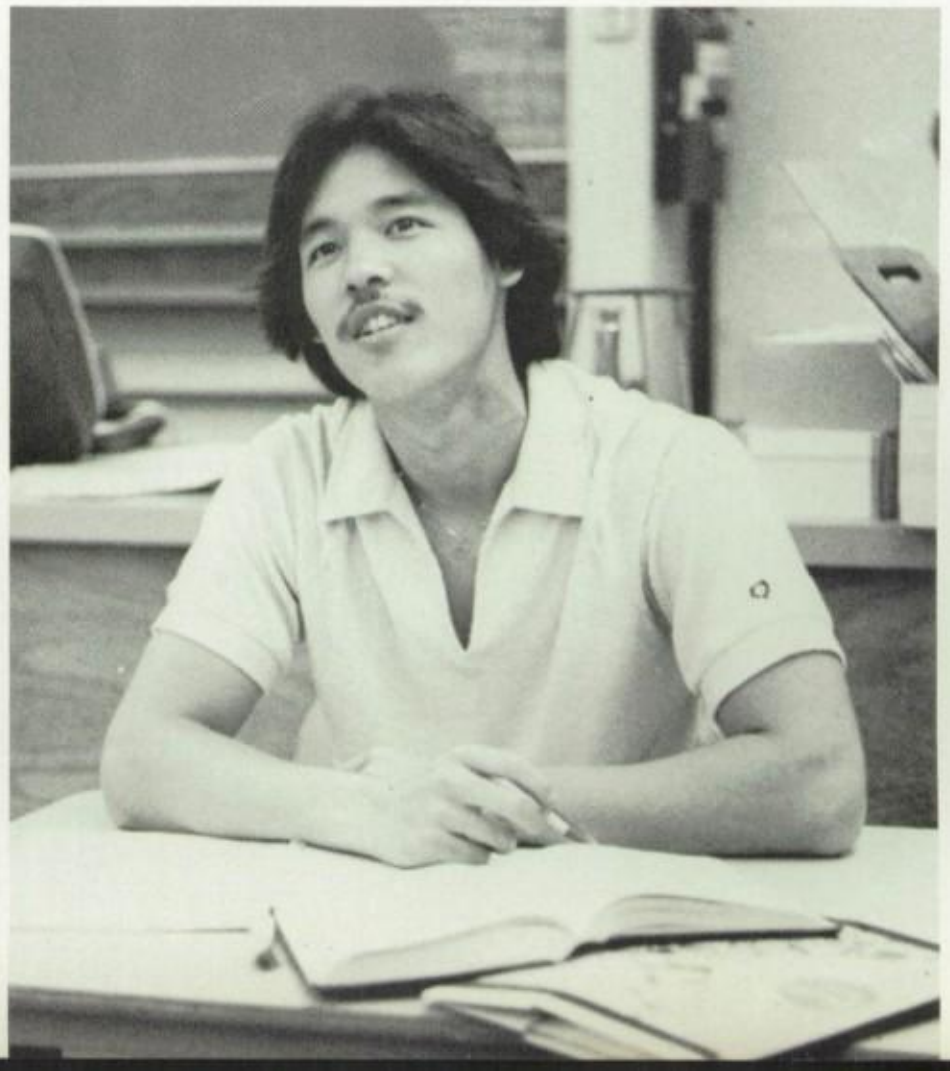
WORLD PREMIERE





INTRODUCTION

Flashback

When I was in the fourth grade, the highlight of the day was recess: playing sockball and handball, or trading stickers. We would gobble down our lunches, to be dismissed to play, but never with the, you know, "opposite sex", for "cooties" were not to be risked!

When I was in the ninth grade . . . I thought I was baaad! I mean I was finally at the top of the whole school, and I even started to go out at night! I was so "hot" . . . It was like: "Gardena High — Watch Out!"

But . . . when I came to tenth grade, my whole vision of fame and fortune became quite blurry. How was I to know there were night dances, where you had to be asked? With so many students from different junior highs, no one knew you were voted "Most Popular" or "Best-Looking." Where were all the clubs seeking me out, and boys rushing around my feet? Was this to be my doom for three whole years?

. . . Now, I'm a big-bad SENIOR — and you should see all these puny sophomores, thinking they're hot-shots! I love being a Senior because I feel independent and responsible, and finally I'm on top of the school again. Now with the changing times, if I don't have a date for Silver Bells, or to the Sweetheart Dance, I'm free to find my own. With the changing times also comes inflation, which means $1.00 lunches and $78 Prom Bids!

Oh yes, and the Prom! Now this is the highlight of my Senior year and I'm sure the guys will be swooning at my feet for a date — just as I expected they would! They just needed a couple of years to mature.

My ninth grade graduation was happy and anxiously-awaited because I was ready to move on. Only now, with Senior graduation coming faster than ever, I'm not so sure I want to leave yet! I have to think about college applications, S.A.T. registrations, and possibly even leaving home! At least there's still Grad Nite!

Oh, but I love Gardena High! I know as we premiere into the outside world, many of us may never cross paths again. We will cherish our years at Gardena — the good times as well as the bad, and no matter where we go or what we do, the memories of the past three years at Gardena will be with us . . . always!!!

As they waited for the delicious prime rib, Lisa Kawasaki and Rob Higa talked to friends, laughed, and savored the excitement of finally "being there."

PROM

"A Time For Us"

"Wow! Prom's tonight and I still have to clean the car. Hope I remember to fill the car with gas and get directions. That book on 'How to Dance Like a Professional' was really helpful. Now I just have to practice my etiquette. My tux is ready and . . . Oh no! I still have to pick up the corsage."

On May 8, the graduating class of 1981 celebrated their most anxiously awaited social event of the year . . . the Classics Prom.

The luxurious Beverly Hills Hilton conveyed an atmosphere of elegance and sophistication. From the ceiling of the tiered ballroom hung magnificent chandeliers. Couples in exquisite gowns and dashing tuxes danced to the music of Bo Donaldson and the Heywoods.

The evening was a special one for all who came. Special because – it was a time for couples, a time for friends, "A Time For Us" . . . the graduating Classics of '81.

In royal style, Queen Lauri Hirami and King Irwin Barber reigned over Prom '81.

Prom Chairperson Terri Little made a special presentation to Mr. Ogawa in appreciation for his dedication as advisor.

EPHEBIAN SOCIETY

The Chosen Few

Only one out of every forty graduating seniors could be selected by faculty and students of each L.A. area high school into the Ephebian Society. Following the by-laws of the society, Gardena High chose 19 students "from among those graduated who have demonstrated service, and in doing so have evidenced outstanding character, leadership ability, and high scholastic achievements." The society's major purpose is to focus the attention of these outstanding graduates upon matters of civic and community leadership.

It is truly an honor to be an Ephebian and these outstanding seniors deserve to be congratulated.

". . . let me tell you about the time . . . " began Terri Little as she related the highlights of her community services to Russell Hirano and Anita Dunn.

Outgoing, courageous, brilliant, confident, and perseverant were all words to describe the members of this make-shift band . . . Janette Umemoto, lead singer; Kevin Ross, electric guitar; Fred Nader, drums; Steffanie Fedunak, sax; Terri Ashimine, keyboard; and Olivia Corral, dancer.

Potato sack races were a fight to the finish for outstanding achievers Susan Nishikawa, Eddie McLachlan, Sheri Munekata, Wendy Yonamine, and Rei Umekubo.

Soaring high in the sky for three full years were Eric Alimento and Christine Miyata's mind-blowing accomplishments at G.H.S.

The key to success isn't always all work and no play . . . By budgeting their time wisely, Carolyn Dewa, Audrey Hirayama, and Oscar Caliman had time for leisurely conversations with friends as well as maintaining their consistently high G.P.A.

BANK OF AMERICA ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP
GOLD SEALBEARER

The Honored Ones

Over $345,000 was awarded to competing high school seniors, courtesy of the 34th annual Bank of America Achievement Awards Program, throughout California.

This program recognized and honored sixteen outstanding Gardena High students whose scholastic attainment, sense of responsibility, and evidence of leadership gave most promise of future success and service to society.

Seven seniors who demonstrated superior academic excellence on their PSAT/NMSQT test taken in October 1979, qualified themselves into the National Merit Scholarship Program.

To receive this honor, the students scored within the top 5% of the nation as Commended Students; the top 1%, as National Merit Finalists.

Similarily, negros placing in the top 10% earned recognition from the National Achievement Scholarship Program for Outstanding Negro Students.

Those who received a Gold Seal on their diploma felt an extra-special sense of pride and honor. The Book of Learning embodied on the seal signified three years of discipline, determination, and academic excellence.

To prove themselves attainers of these qualities, every Gold Sealbearer participated in the California Scholarship Foundation for at least four semesters — one being in their senior year. Qualifications for being a member of C.S.F. were a minimal of three A's and one B on each semester report card.

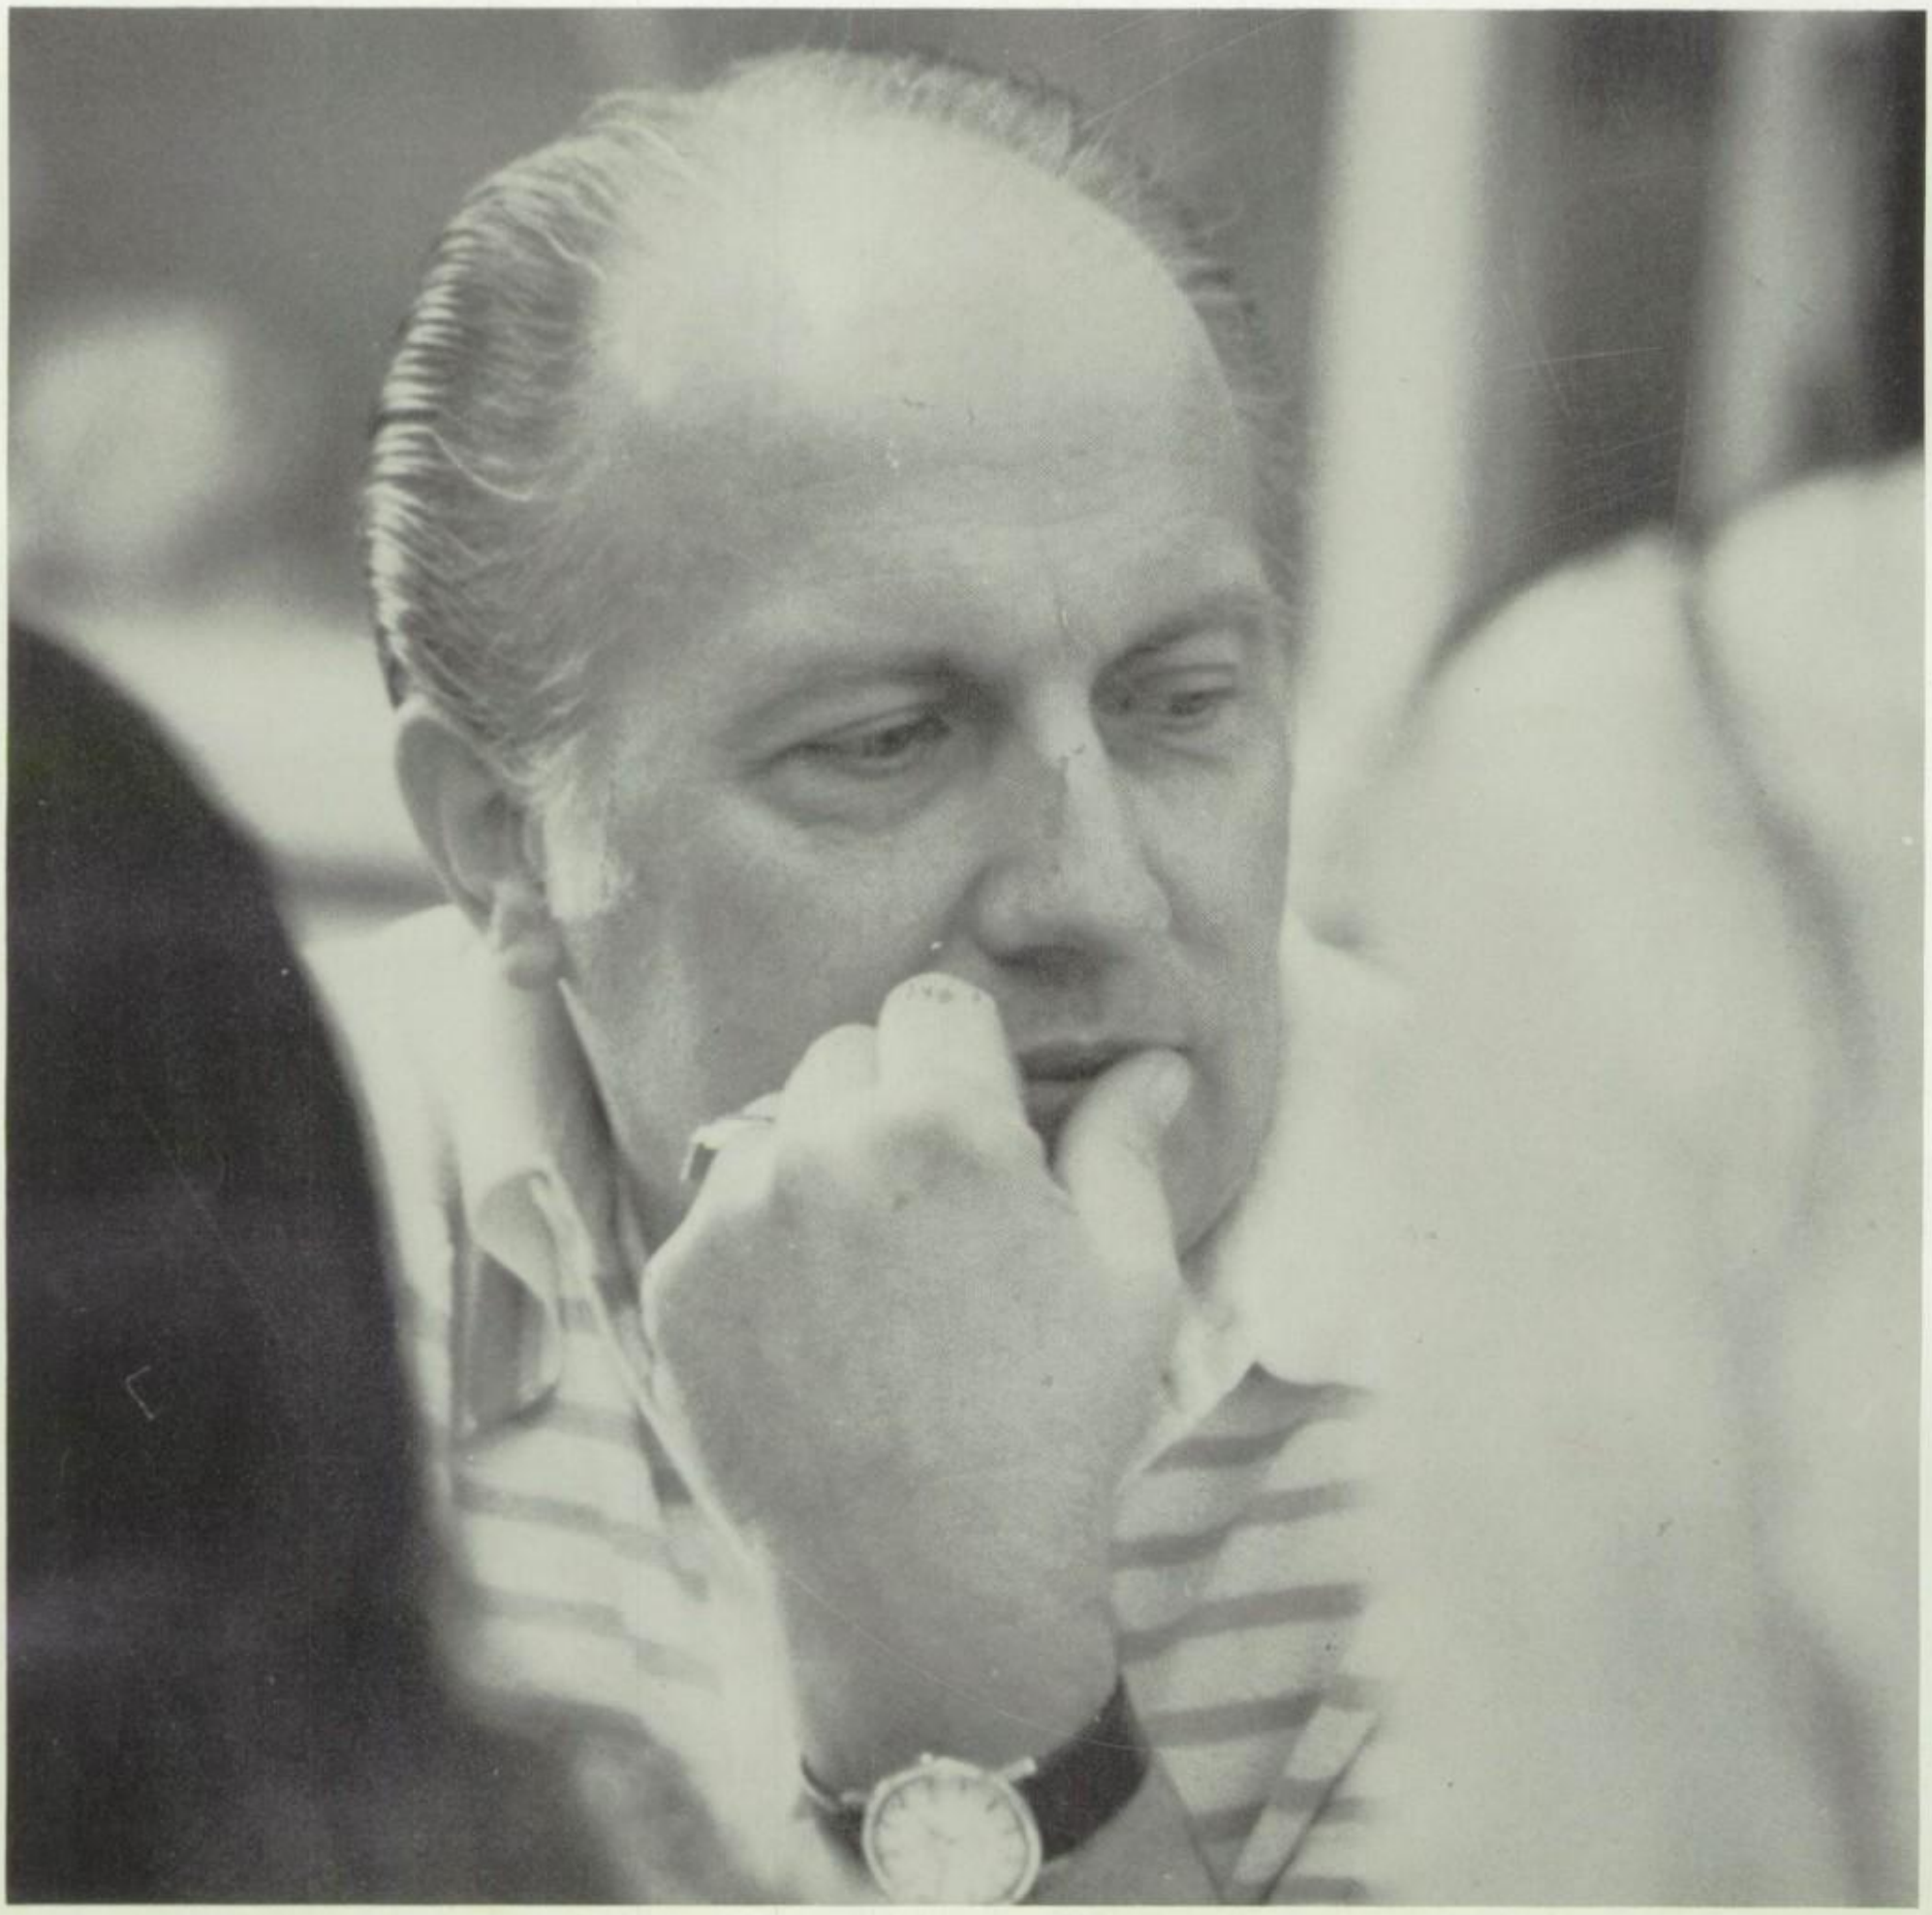
EPILOGUE



A TRIBUTE TO MR. GENE CATTERMOLE

For 24 successive years, Mr. Gene Cattermole has been the guiding force behind the El Arador. In remembrance of the love and guidance that he unselfishly gave to each editor and yearbook staff, we collectively dedicate PRODUCTION '81 to this man whom we affectionately called "Catt".

Mr. Gene Cattermole was born and raised in Iowa — the fourth child and only son of Albert and Goldie Cattermole. Living just a stone's throw from a beautiful freshwater lake, Catt would spend many-an-afternoon fishing from its banks. In school, Catt was active in music and band, and although he loved sports, it was necessary that he physically refrain from them due to asthma that was quite severe. It was here in Storm Lake, Iowa, that many life-long friendships were kindled.

Catt enlisted in the Coast Guard after graduating from high school and for three years he sailed the Mississippi River. After his release from the Coast Guard, Catt returned to Storm Lake to be close to his parents and to help run their farm implement store. Rene's brother, Dale, happened to own the little restaurant next door to the Cattermole store and inevitably the two (Catt and Rene) were matched up. In May 1951, Catt married this "girl next door", Rene, who has been a wonderful partner to Catt all these 30 years.

The first four years together were young and tender and collegiate ones for Catt and Rene. They had their first two sons, Brad and Steve, while Catt was attending Buena Vista College. Being trained as a pharmacist-mate for the Coast Guard, Catt hungered for more knowledge of the Biological Sciences and decided to graduate as a Science major.

After graduation in 1956, Catt and Rene ventured west to Southern California and settled in Westchester. Terry, their third son, was born a couple of years later.

Catt started at Gardena High School the first year it moved to its present location — in 1956 as a science teacher. Thus begins the 24-year legacy that Mr. Gene Cattermole has left to Gardena's community and Gardena's youth. Catt's second home was room D-5 and remnants of the things he loved best still grace the walls and shelves . . . close to 100 trophies and First-Place plaques won by the Key Club line the cabinet tops, pictures of successive editors of the Gardena High El Arador left to Catt in love and appreciation cover one wall, photos and pictures of trout and bass fishing decorate the bulletin boards, and reminders of his favorite football teams, the Gardena High Mohicans and the USC Trojans also remain.

For 24 years Catt never missed a day of teaching due to illness. He served as faculty advisor to the El Arador, Gardena High's yearbook since 1958. During that time Gardena has never had a late book — thanks to the hard-working editors and staffs, and Catt and Rene who would work weekends and very long nights to get all those pictures printed and layouts pasted down, and to Franklin Press. Catt would want to give a special acknowledgement to Franklin for their cooperation and unending patience during the 24 years they have printed our El Arador. Catt himself seemed to be tireless and would always be full of spirit whether it was 6:30 in the morning or 12:00 at night. He really did devote his "all" to the production of the yearbook and continually sought to find better and more efficient ways for "next year". Developing and printing of pictures had always been a problem until Catt set up a darkroom in room D-5. Catt took the money from his own pocket to purchase the necessary equipment.

Yearbook was one of the most highly-pressured and tiring experiences we have ever dealt with, and how Catt could continue to take this responsibility year after year amazes us. We are lucky for the continuity and experience he brought to the book and staffs, for the spirit and the love he wove into each page, and for the precedence he has set by many First Class prize-winning books.

For 23 years Catt also served as the faculty advisor to Gardena High's Key Club and has been an active member of the Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club for over 20 years. He was honored as Kiwanian of the Year in 1961 and in 1962 was bestowed the honorable Sandy Nininger Award for his outstanding dedication to Kiwanis International.

In January, after his untimely death, the P.T.A. honored Catt with the Honorary Service Award in recognition for all the things he has done to make Gardena High a better educational institution. The essence of this recognition was best described by a Gardena High Student who remembers Catt in this way, "he taught us a lot more than science. He told us that our youth was special, and was to be enjoyed and not wasted. He gave us vocational guidance and taught the importance of education and planning for the future. Most importantly, he taught us the meaning of self-accomplishment and self-respect and that failure within ourselves is nonexistent."

Continually supportive of school sports, Catt would always make the time to attend and offer a helping hand at basketball and football games and track meets. We think he was more enthusiastic and loyal to our football team than most students and he would be so surprised if our plans for a Friday night in September or October didn't include attending the game. Catt also coordinated the football programs every season since 1956.

In addition Catt took on the sponsorship of the Gardena High newspaper Smoke Signals a couple of years ago. He undertook this task with the same amount of energy and enthusiasm that he had put into all his other responsibilities.

With such total involvement at school one might think that Catt's family must have been shortchanged, but it was an emotional and reflective Brad (Catt's eldest son) that remarked that he had never even realized the scope of his father's involvement at Gardena. "Dad was always there when we needed him — he would never fail to take us all on wonderful family vacations — he was active in our Boy Scout Troop and Little League teams and was always supportive and loving — Terry, Steve and I never even knew we were sharing him with so many other people. I realize now that the greatest compliment my own children can pay me is to remember me in my passing with as much love and respect that I hold for Dad."

Mr. Gene Cattermole passed away the morning of Christmas Eve 1980 of a heart attack. He was only 52 years old.

Catt certainly touched the lives of many and through our sharing in his life we are happier and better and we thank him for that. We think he'd like to be remembered as a man who loved the simple joys of life — like cherry pie and cookies, the snowfall and sunsets, attending USC football games, fishing, early morning breakfasts in the faculty cafeteria with his favorite colleagues, his fun vocabulary like "get your bod up on the poop deck!", his endearing nicknames, and his love and devotion to youth. So many things will continue to remind us of Catt — his goodness and enthusiasm for life will linger on in our memories . . . and he will be remembered in a special way by all.

Catt, the saddest part of this dedication to you is that you aren't here to read it. Somehow we hope that you will know how much you are loved and that you will always be remembered. Thanks for everything, but mostly the caring and the friendship and the love. We will miss you so much. But it's comforting to know that someday, in a different place and time, we will meet again. Even now, if we reach far enough within ourselves, we will find that you are, and always will be, alive in our hearts.

On behalf of all those who were lucky enough to share in your life.

With much love,

YEARBOOK STAFF
PRODUCTION '81

"OUR FEARLESS LEADER"

These past nine months have been an experience of joys and sorrows. The problems we overcame and the good times that we shared made our friendships more special — because we did it together. Janette, we never could have done it without you. Your inspiration and dedication pulled the class through thick and thin. It was necessary for you to take on more responsibility than was expected of an editor. Working as closely as we did, we saw the many sides of you. The crazy Jay-Jay, the gentle Jay, and the serious Janette. We hope when you look at Production '81, it will bring you nothing but pride, satisfaction and happiness which you really deserve. As our "fearless leader" and friend we have grown to respect you, admire you, and love you. When we saw the poem that follows, we felt that someone had written the words especially for you. Keep it always close to your heart, with love.

Yearbook Staff, Production '81

PROMISE YOURSELF to be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind. To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet. To make all your friends feel that there is something in them. To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true. To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best. To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own. To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future. To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile. To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others. To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.

In loving memory of Gene Cattermole
because you touched
so many of our lives

If I could reach back in time . . .

I would reach for the moments you shared with me . . . the warm, crazy "hello's" . . . the thoughtful discussions . . . times for winning and losing.

I would capture your laughter, your advice, your love, your care — and seal these treasures in a bottle.

And if ever I needed a friend, I could open the bottle and again feel that sparkle . . . and remember that I am somebody special.

Thanks, Catt.

The Dashboard Wizard.™ Before, there was only car stereo.

Put aside everything you've been told about car stereo. The Dashboard Wizard is with us!

He's the latest in-dash audio marvel from Fujitsu Ten. A preamp combination system that will transform your car. The precise digital electronic tuner memorizes your favorite 7 AM and 7 FM stations, with search up, search down and scan tuning, FM muting and local/distance switch. There's even a quartz clock.

Hit the equalization switch and, presto, the auto-reverse cassette deck accommodates chrome and metal tapes.

With a Life Time Metal (LTM) playback head that's built to last well into the future. His five-band graphic equalizer lets you match the music to your car.

Performance? Miraculous, of course. Wow and flutter is .09% nominal—one of the best specs in car stereo. And with Dolby* on both FM and tape, hiss is a thing of the past.

Hear the Dashboard Wizard at your Fujitsu Ten dealer. Any resemblance to ordinary car stereo is a figment of your imagination.

Life and Love seem so rare these days. No one knows who comes or stays, only too late do we realize you can't live your life on a path of fate. You fought to show us a way no one could sustain and now after you are gone,
Not only the man who shot
but us — We are to blame.

KEY CLUB AND KIWANIS . . . DARE TO INFLUENCE

This year, the Gardena Key Club celebrated its 27th year of dedicated school and community service. Throughout this time, the Gardena Valley Kiwanis Club has been behind them one hundred percent.

Their relationship proves that adult businessmen and high school students can work together successfully. The Kiwanians have given them financial as well as moral support. It's not unusual to see a Kiwanian working beside a Key Clubber at one of their many service projects.

Pride, perseverence, purpose —

Key Club and Kiwanis will hopefully provide Gardena with another two decades of outstanding community service.

Memories of Catt...

Thanks, Catt, for your life — it was your dedication to life that inspires me to do my best in all that I attempt. One of the things that I learned from you was that if I did my very best to achieve the goals I strive for, but fell short of them in trying my best, I could still be happy with what I had attained. Catt, you always told me that "life is too short to worry about things." Truly, life was too short for a friend who lived life to its fullest.

God bless you, Catt.

For God and Country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the Great Wars; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of Justice, Freedom and Democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

How many times did you hear me say
"You'll get me back for this someday."
Those famous last words followed my cries for assistance
(If I were you, I'd have kept my distance!)
You loaned me your camer, lenses and flash.
And even shot pictures at the big band bash.
Though Tri-x's and apertures meant mass confusion,
You gave patient explanations to clear my delusions.
You were always generous and willing to spend
Time printing pictures - for hours on end!
The sacrifices you made - along with assistant, Paul—
Are just too much to mention . . .couldn't cover them all.
And so we extend our sincere appreciation
For coming through and easing our frustrations!

Thank you !!!

Love,

Dear Catt,

Thank you for all the good times we've shared. I'll always remember your smile, laughter and craziness. You helped me by giving me strength, support and protection during my first weeks in high school. Your dedication and interest in others made you a very special guy.

You've given me happiness by showing me a new way to look at the world . . . through the eyes of love. Thanks again Catt, for all the precious memories.

I love you,
"A" Tsukimura

Gayle Watari, Thanks for doing the calligraphy.

Kevin A.- for what? J/K Thanks for staying afterschool all those times and making me smile.

I never knew how it felt
to be alone
until you went away

So alone

I tried doing the things
we did together
but they only reminded me of you
I tried doing the things
we did not do together
but I couldn't get involved in anything
I tried smiling
but tears were always in my eyes
I tried laughing
but nothing was funny

So alone

I never knew how it felt
to be alone
until you went away
I never knew how it felt to love
until you came back
